"And these are the moments

These are the times

Let's make the best out of our lives"

When I first stepped onto this campus four years ago, I could have never dreamt what these years would bring. Each of us came here with a different story, a different journey, a different dream. Yet, all of these stories, journeys and dreams have meshed into one, as we formed the class of 2005.

It is with bittersweet sorrow that we say goodbye to this place, which many of us have called home over these past four years. I already know that in the years to come it will be the simple things we miss. As a tour guide at admissions, I am often asked many questions. It wasn't until I was asked, "What will you miss next year?" that it hit me. I am a senior, I am graduating. That night I took a walk and tried to come up with all the things I will miss about this place. It surprised me that my list was many of the simple things on campus. I will miss chicken parm night at Taylor, knowing Larry will always have a joke to cheer me up, the craziness that forms Pup Cup, and the 4 a.m. roommate chats and pillow fights. I will miss celebrating Red Sox victories as a campus. I will miss knowing I can walk across campus and see at least four people who want to stop and talk. Most of all, I will miss all the great people I have met and who have experienced these past four years alongside me.

While this book is not a record of any one person's journey through Assumption, I hope that it can serve as a collection of our class's journey together over these past four years. I know many of you will probably just skim through this book a few times once you receive it and then let it sit on a shelf collecting dust until our reunions roll around. I hope the 2005 Heights succeeds in capturing what Assumption meant to you. Hopefully the Heights Yearbook will allow you to remember how these were the moments, how these were the times, and how we made the best out of our lives.

Daniel Reen

I'm Free
By Linda Jo Jackson

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took God's hand when I heard the call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.

On June 5, 2003 at the age of 21, Daniel Reen passed away, leaving behind his family and many friends. During his time at Assumption, Daniel was active in the football program, wearing the number 4. Football was a passion of his crossing over from high school, where he was a captain and helped lead his team to many victories. Daniel will always be remembered for the smile which was a permanent fixture on his face and the kindness which always surrounded him.

Michael Zabroski

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored so much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, God set me free.

Michael Zabroski, also known as "Z" passed away on January 26, 2004, his 21st birthday. Z was known as an internally happy, uplifting person who had a positive impact on many lives here at AC and beyond. He was a lifelong baseball player, and he played his freshmen year at Assumption. Many people remember Mike for a tattoo on his left bicep, an ornate cross with a hollowed Z going through it, which showed his belief in God. Michael left behind a loving family and numerous friends.

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE

OFFICE OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

CENTENNIAL 2004

To the Class of 2005,

Upon beginning our freshman year at Assumption I, like many others, felt a bit unsure of myself and my status at this institution. We all chose this college for various reasons: some were recruited for athletics, some received academic scholarships, and others merely felt at home within the welcoming community. As time passed, we began to find our niches on campus in many different ways. As a result, the people we have met and the experiences we have had are invaluable and self-defining. Whether it was pulling all-nighters, working an extra job, or taking out loans, each one of us made the sacrifices necessary to graduate.

As a class, we are graduating with fewer students than we began with. Some students transferred while others were unable to make the grade. As a community, we are also still devastated by the loss of two fellow classmates, Daniel Reen and Michael "Z" Zabroski. I would like to congratulate everyone in our class for graduating from Assumption College. Obtaining a college degree is no small feat, and each one of us has taken a different path with certain adjustments along the way. The lessons we have learned will continue to help us in our respective endeavors. In closing, I would like to express that it has been my pleasure to spend these past four years with all of you and serving as your Junior and Senior class president.

*"Now we have all grown up, gone on and moved away,
Nothing I can do about it, nothing I can say,
To bring us back to where we were when life was not this hard,
Looking back it all just seems so far, so far away."*

Shaping...

*From teaching us
lessons, to helping us explore our futures, to keeping us involved in campus life, these people helped shape not only our minds, but our hearts as well.*

Congratulations to the members of the Class of 2005. You have all participated in the Centennial celebrations of Assumption College and engaged in discussions during a presidential election. You have come to realize that the goal of a liberal education is as much an ethical pursuit as an intellectual one. You have learned that the choices you make turn you into the person you become. God has indeed shed His grace on thee. I wish you all good health and good fortune.

The beginning...

*We left high school at the top of our class, to come to Assumption
College at the bottom.*

Who knew that being at the bottom could be so much fun?

Orientation

2004

Well before move-in day the Class of 2008 began their career at Assumption. Enthusiastic group leaders led them through the basics of college life. The freshmen were broken into groups based on colors. The different color groups were given campus tours and had questions answered by faculty and administration members. These students had a chance to discuss classes, clubs, and their future dorms. The evening was spent in the Plourde Recreation Center participating in group activities such as a spoon relay and team balloon bursting. A dance party held in Hagan followed these icebreakers. The fun continued well into the night with everything staying in Worcester Hall. The good friends and many memories made during Orientation 2004 will surely carry the Class of 2008 through their four years at Assumption.

Clockwise from Left: Freshmen relax in the shade while taking part in group activities; Junior Jay Laperriere poses with some members of his group; New friends get excited about popsicles; Senior Meg Dowling enjoys a stopover in Charlie's with a few freshmen ladies; The guys have fun trying to pop balloons between their bodies during a competition in the gym while junior Ryan Barba looks on.

Clockwise from Right: Jenna Finch, Jackie Crowley, and Anna Rogers take the lead in a crazy costume contest; The acoustic sounds of Susan Ulbrich calm the audience; Andrew Themeles rocks out to a Dave Matthews tune; Justin "Shades" Marra brings some classic rock to Charlie's; The beautiful voice of Kristen Magro draws a hush over the crowd.

Open Mic

October 28th, 2004

Halloween Open Mic: "Fright Night" was a smash success, drawing performers from all classes and spectators from all dorms. An intriguing blend of classic and modern rock filled the air of Charlie's while everyone brought along their acoustic or electric guitars. Musical competition for the cash prize was fierce while the costume contest featured some rather flamboyant entries. Songstress Kristen Magro took home the top prize of the night while Chris Kessing and Tim Cullinan were close behind for second place. Justin "Shades" Marra, an annual entry in the contest, took home third prize with his original music. All in all, the event left everyone impressed and entertained, from the tune-ups to the awards.

Montreal Trip

November 5th - 7th, 2004

The Class of 2006 crossed the border in November searching for fun in the city of Montreal. Students were entertained by colorful tour guides, serenaded by street performers, and intellectually stimulated by the area's museums. But when the sun went down, the junior class went exploring, checking out all the late night entertainment that Canada had to offer. Even a "treacherous" snow storm didn't stop them from braving the blustery weather to make it to the brightly lit bars. Even though the revelry continued into the early hours, everyone showed up for breakfast right on time the next morning.

Winter Soirée

December 4th, 2004

The underclassmen of Assumption were given the opportunity to sponsor a winter dance before the stressful week of finals began. The event was a collaboration between the freshmen and sophomore class officers and class assembly and was held in the Hagan Campus Center Hall. Colorful lights decorated the ceiling while balloon arches added more festivity. The theme of "Black Night, Winter White" was reflected in the impeccable fashion sense of those who attended. Dave Gendron deejayed the event, filling the room with everything from slow R&B to upbeat dance-along songs. The soiree drew a large crowd and kept everyone on their feet for hours on end. It was certainly a night that the classes of 2007 and 2008 will never forget.

Pup Cup

Pup Cup 2005 pitted the freshmen against the sophomores in various athletic competitions including a triathlon of floor hockey, basketball, and a relay race. Students purchased T-shirts sporting Pup Cup's Greek theme and wore them proudly throughout the weekend.

Penny Wars added a new dimension to the competition. Both classes struggled to collect the most pennies and sabotaged the other class with silver coins and dollar bills. The much anticipated Mr. and Miss AC contest drew a large crowd while guys and girls tried to win the adoration of the crowd so they could win the coveted crowns. The Pup Cup Carnival featured inflatables, free food, and live music. The weekend was capped off by a dance held in the Hagan Campus Center Hall where students showed up in togas to honor the Greek theme.

The Campus Activities Board (CAB) works diligently in planning and organizing the various entertaining activities for our college community. The executive board is comprised of thirteen hard-working student leaders and advisor, Karen Manson. At the heart of CAB are the general members of the Assumption community who take an active role in creating the social events for our campus. Seven subcommittees work successfully towards establishing fun-filled activities for the campus to enjoy. These committees include Comedy, Concerts, Family Weekend, Formal Events, Live @ Charlie's, Siblings' Weekend, and Special Events. CAB also proudly co-sponsors the much-anticipated Welcome Back Weeks occurring in September and January, which welcome back the undergraduates from their vacations. The organization delights in supplying its members with great friendships, high-quality community entertainment, and fun times! CAB would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the fabulous executives and general members who worked so intensely this year in coordinating awesome campus events. Good luck to those graduating and best wishes to those returning back in the fall!

Heights Yearbook is one of the many student publications here on campus. This year the staff was made up of 15 hard working individuals who all put their creativity together to produce the book. Unlike the common perceptions, putting a yearbook is not about just collecting photos and placing them on a page. From going to events, taking photos, and writing stories there is a lot of time and energy involved. Planning for this year's book started before finals ended last year and work will continue until after graduation. Thank you to all who have helped to produce this year's book and to make it a very memorable experience.

Captained by Seniors Paul Randazzo and Brian Gordon, the 2004 Assumption College football team completed their season with a record of 1-9-0. Gordon, one of eight seniors on the Greyhounds roster, led the team defensively throughout the year, being named a First Team Northeast-10 Conference All-Star.

The highlight of the Greyhounds' season came with a 6-0 win at home over PACE. The Greyhounds scored the lone touchdown of the game when freshman touchback Mike Moonan received a 25 yard pass from freshman quarterback Ben Roberts. With forty-three freshman on the 2004 roster, the future looks bright for Assumption football.

With only three seniors on the 2004 roster, the Assumption field hockey team competed against teams with much more experience. However, for the Greyhounds, winning was not the only concern.

Whether or not we won was not always the most important thing," said co-captain Colleen Haughey. "Knowing that we could walk off the field and not have to ask ourselves whether or not we tried our best was an important goal." The Greyhounds kicked off their 2004 season with a thrilling 1-0 overtime win over Bryant College. From there, the team played to a 6-13 record, with five of their wins coming against Northeast-10 Conference rivals including Bryant, Saint Anselm, American International and Franklin Pierce. In addition to being able to enjoy the competition, their time together on the field also created a special bond between teammates. "Had I not played field hockey I would have left Assumption without having met some of the most amazing people, some of whom are my closest friends," said Haughey. "The field hockey team was more than just a team it was a family."

The Assumption Men's Soccer team finished out the season with a record of 4-11-2. Led by post-grad forward Chris Laut, who scored 12 goals in 17 games this season, The Greyhounds started the year with a record of 1-0-2 after a successful stint at the American International Tournament.

The team highly valued teamwork and commitment throughout the season. "From the middle of August to October we fought together," said Junior Mid fielder Jared Donnelly. "We'll never forget what we learned from those fights and we'll use it later in life." The team enjoyed thrilling overtime wins over Saint Michael's and Green Mountain in October.

The Greyhounds closed out the season with a close 4-3 win over Stonehill College, a game in which mid fielder Rafael Henckel scored two goals. With a young roster during the 2004 season, the men's soccer team now looks forward to a successful season next year. Donnelly, who will captain next year's squad is excited and optimistic, "I look forward to leading my team on and off the field."

The Assumption women's soccer team ended a very successful 2004 season in the NCAA Division II New England Regional Final. Head Coach Neil Stafford coached his team to a convincing 15-6 record. "Our team played every game with only that 90-minute match in mind," said co-captain Andrea Marcoccio, who led the team with 13 goals this season. "We never got caught up in the rankings, the stats or records we had been breaking during the season and this is why I think our team was so successful. We took each game one at a time and found ourselves in the NCAA Sweet 16."

After a successful regular season and a 1-0 win over Merrimack in the first round of the NCAA play-offs, the Greyhounds put together one of the best seasons in history. They're also a tight-knit group off the field. "It is hard to put into words how much this team means to me and to each other," said Marcoccio. "We are so close and have unbelievable team chemistry and this defiantly contributes to our success on the field."

This was also a huge year for Senior Captian Ali Reyell. Reyell earned first-team all-conference honors and a first-team New England selection. Reyell was also name the Northeast-10 Conferene Defender of-the-Year.

Cross Country

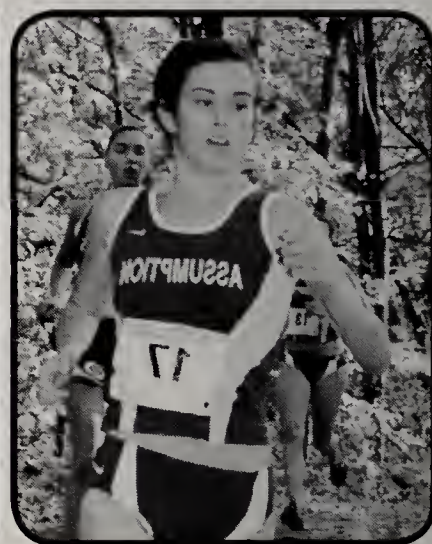

When asked to describe his teammates in three words, men's cross country team captain Kyle Fontaine chose "wild, hard-working, and loyal," to describe the team he enjoyed leading during the 2004 season. "It felt really good to be an important part of the team and I am thankful that my guys voted me into that position," said Captain Fontaine. The Greyhounds set out to improve their times and place higher in the NCAA Northeast Regionals. With a tenth place finish, the team was happy with the way their season ended. Fontaine was particularly pleased with the 2004 season, "I could not have been happier with how my team performed on and off the trails."

The Assumption College women's cross country team finished the 2004 season ranked fifth in the NCAA Division II New England Region. The season marked the seventh for head coach Mark Perrone, whose roster included five seniors.

Senior captain Julie Durkin led the Greyhounds to a number of wins throughout the season, including a win in the Worcester Cross Country Championship. The women's cross country team placed seventh in the NCAA northeast Regional to close out the season. Junior Rachel Mitton finished with the best time for the Greyhounds at 24 minutes and 45.2 seconds. She placed 24th overall in the race.

Despite a trying season on the court in which the team finished with a record of 4-18, the 2004 Assumption volleyball team made memories both on and off the court. "These girls aren't just teammates anymore, they have become more like another family," said co-captain Leslie Yarsites. "We supported each other on and off the court and that was something we talked about a lot approaching the season."

Under head coach Bob Stein, the Greyhounds competed with a relatively young squad that included no seniors. One of the team's most memorable moments came in the form of a mid-October win over Northeast-10 Conference rival Southern New Hampshire University. "It was a huge win for us to win in four and come back after we were down," said Yarsites. "It just made everyone on the team feel great, like all the hard work we were putting in was finally beginning to pay off."

Assumption volleyball will now look ahead to the 2005 season, as Yarsites said, "This season was a lot of fun...next season we will still have all the same people on the team. We hope to improve greatly and make it to the tournament."

Led by post-grad captain Elijah Bland, the Assumption men's basketball team completed the 2005 season with a record of 4-23. The team was fueled offensively by senior forward Brian Robinson, who led the team with 478 points in 27 games. A highlight of the basketball season came with Courtyard Classic IV, held here at Assumption. The Greyhounds defeated Post University by a score of 81-74 before beating St. Thomas Aquinas 68-59.

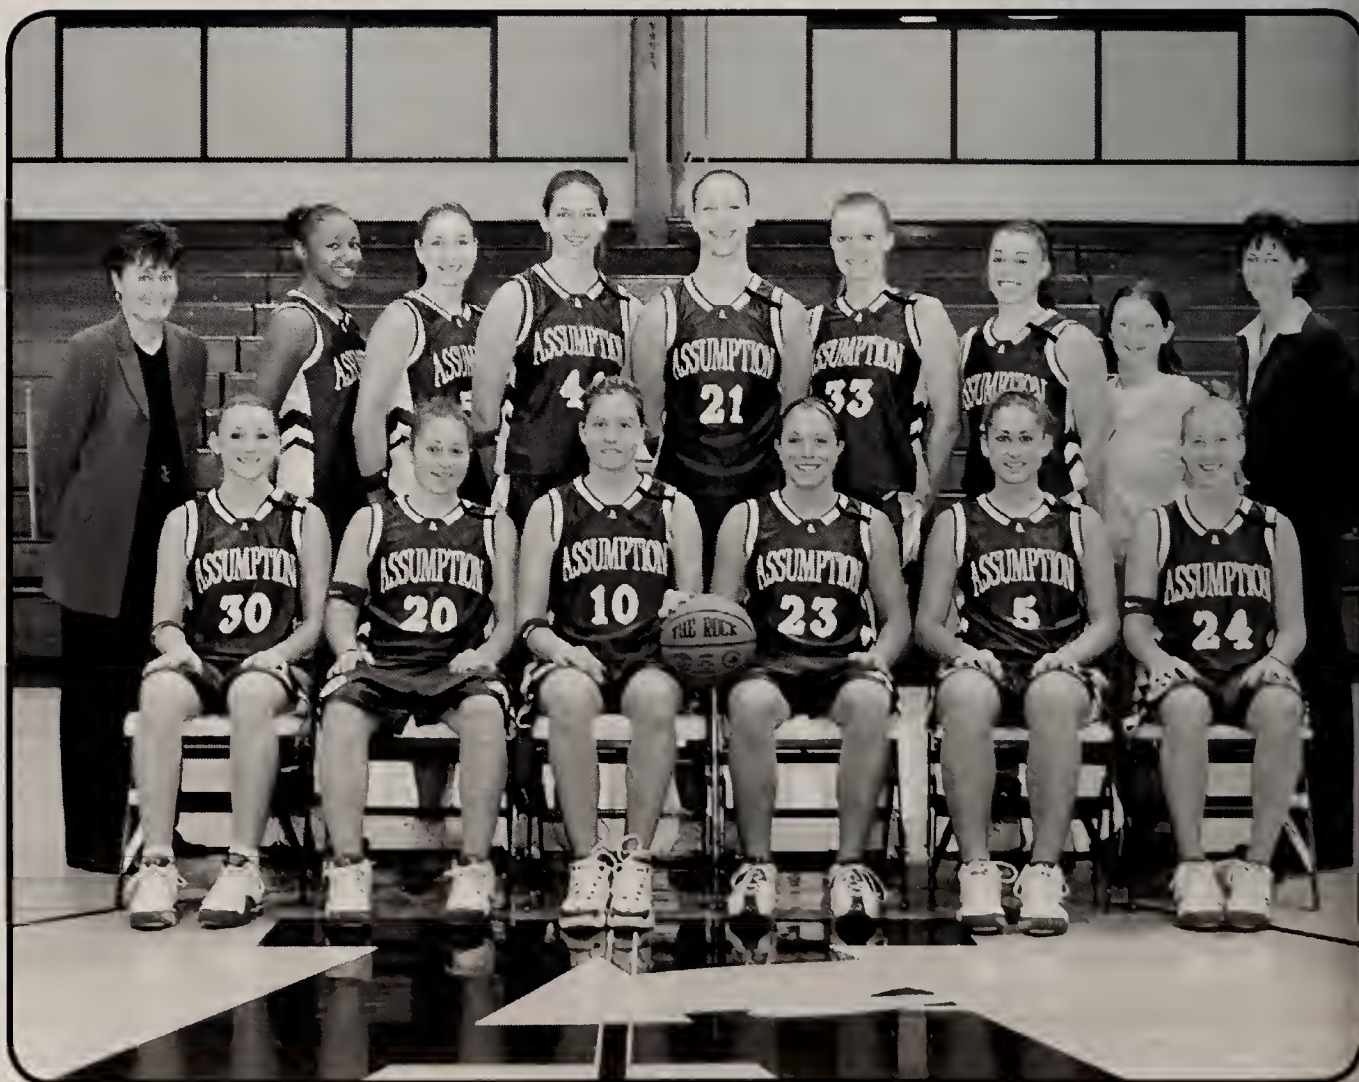

Although the final record was not what the team had hoped, Bland put the season into perspective, saying, "Through it all, I wouldn't trade the character of this team for the world. Bad things happen to good people sometimes. We got the short end of the stick this year. These guys are my brothers and I'm glad I could go out leading good men through a great learning experience."

The Assumption women's basketball team competed to a final record of 13-15 for the 2005 season. Kerry Milhaven led the team offensively with 325 points in 28 games, while Charde Floyd posted 243 rebounds, the team's season best. The team finished out the season with an appearance in the Northeast-10 playoffs. The Greyhounds just barely lost to UMass Lowell by a score of 61-58. Floyd led the team in the playoff game with 15 points in 32 minutes played. The team will only lose two seniors, captain Freddie Grant and Kara Williamson, and will be looking to be a competitive force in 2006.

The Assumption hockey team finished an exciting 2005 season with a solid record of 12-12-3. The Greyhounds, led by captains Scott Hersom and Geno DeAngelis, went undefeated in their first four games of the season. They also put together a 5-game unbeaten streak mid-season featuring wins over Stonehill, Plymouth State, Nichols, and Southern New Hampshire. Hersom, a senior left wing, led the team in scoring with 15 goals and 17 assists. The team was helped defensively by junior goaltenders Mike Sweeney, Sean O'Leary, and Frank Landino, who combined on the season for a .855 save percentage.

Men's Golf

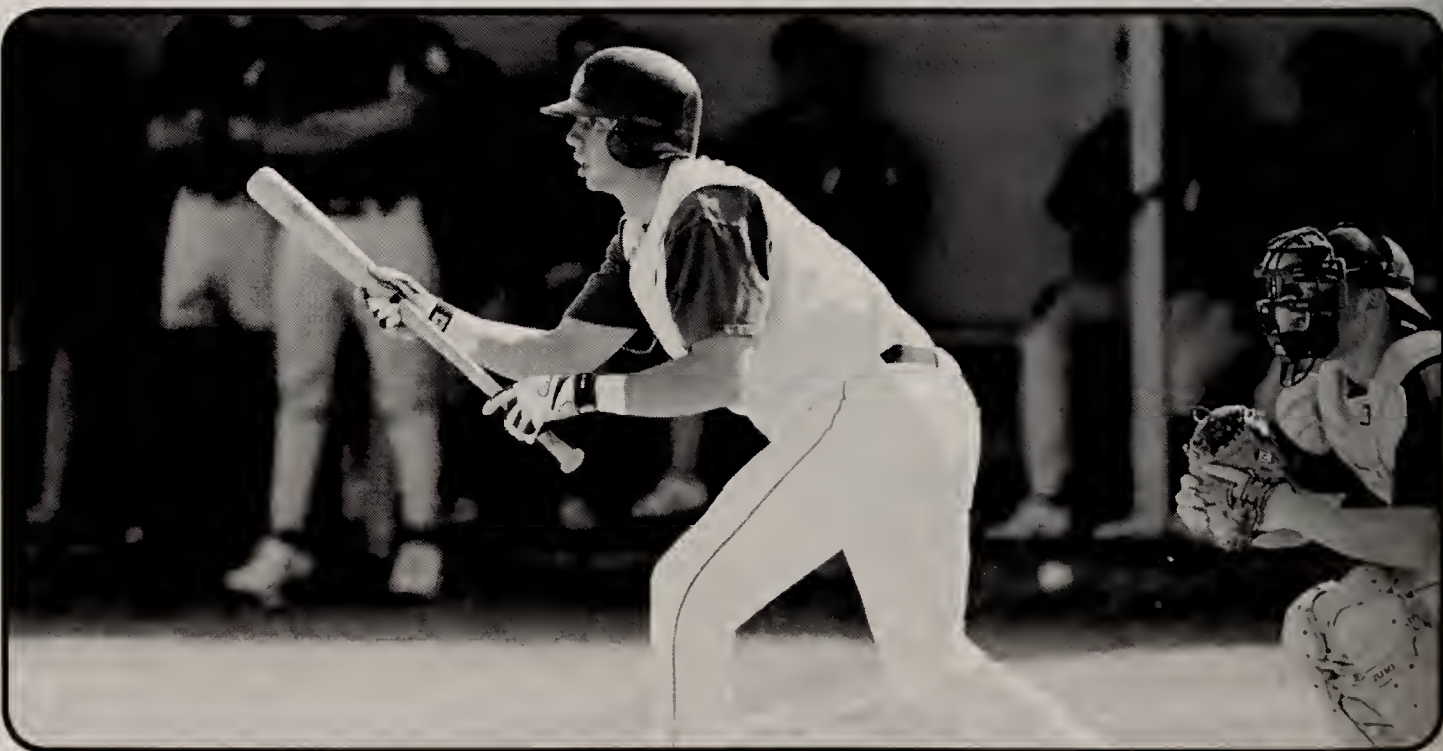

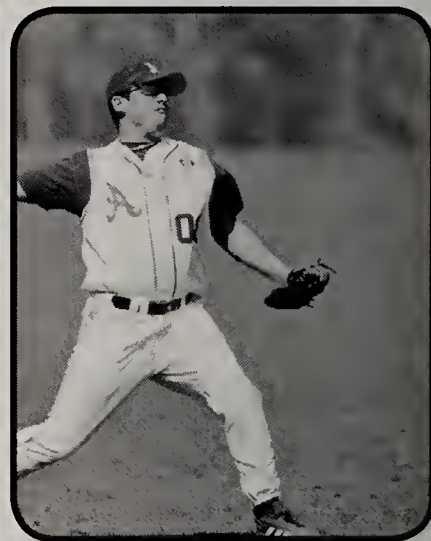

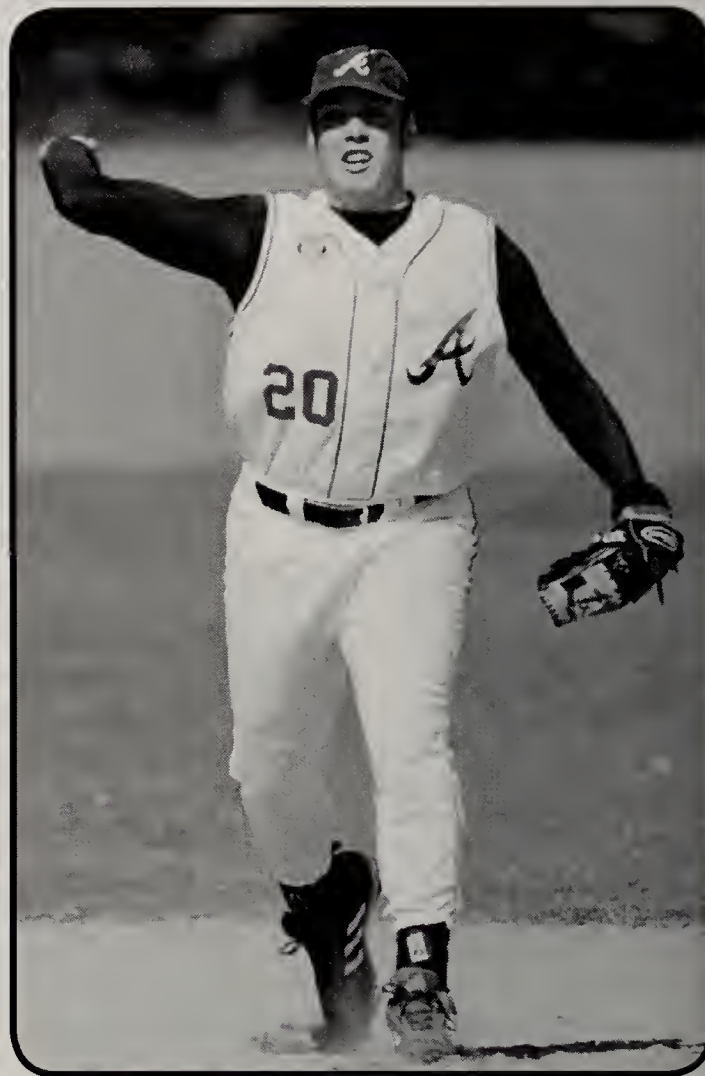

In March the Assumption golf team traveled to Haig Point Country Club in Hilton Head, South Carolina to compete in the Lonnie Barton Invitational Tournament. Assumption placed 17th overall. Junior Jeff Furtado led the Greyhounds at 27 over par on 36 holes. At the Massachusetts Intercollegiate Golf Tournament, held in April at Stow Acres Country Club, the Greyhounds placed eighth overall behind Furtado's convincing second place finish, scoring an impressive 74.

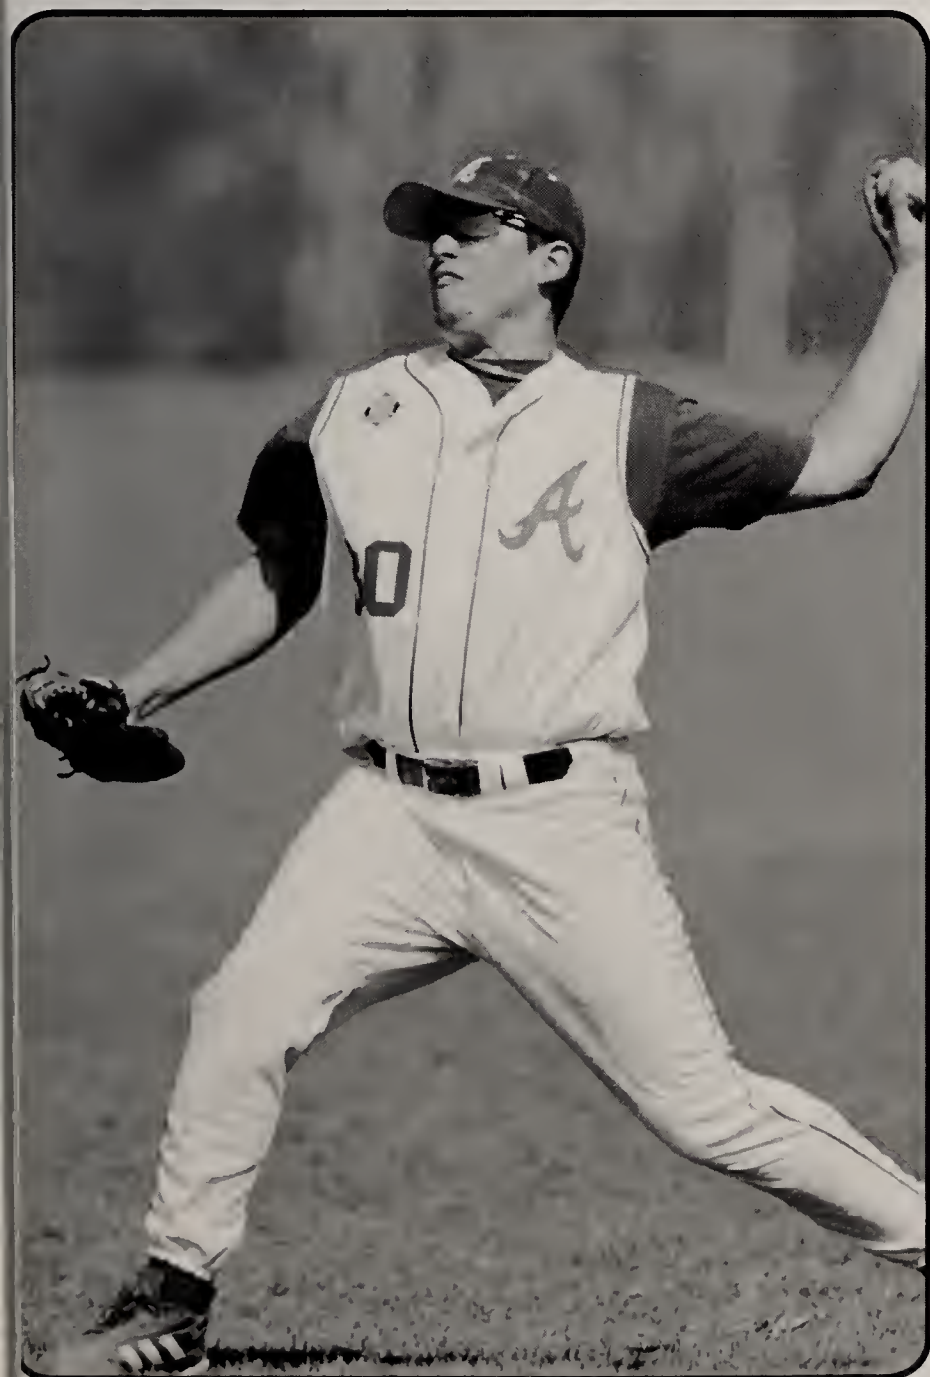

A number of other golfers placed well for Assumption, including junior Mark Halibozek (24) and senior captain Chris Cowell (31).

The Greyhounds will lose seniors Cowell and James Newton but should field a competitive team next year.

At the beginning of the season, the Assumption baseball team set a specific team motto they chose to follow year-long. "Hustle, Discipline, Compete" were the words the Greyhounds lived by. With thirteen freshmen on the 2005 roster the Assumption baseball team was relatively inexperienced. However, with the leadership of their three senior players, Co-Captains Andy Barlow and Chris Colabello, along with Brandon Brower, the Greyhounds competed in a number of close games. Colabello led the team offensively posting impressive numbers in a number of categories including batting average, slugging percentage, and on base percentage.

One of the team's most exciting game came with the 7-6 defeat of the 29th ranked team in the nation, Frankli Pierce. The Greyhounds will look forward to a better season next year, as the majority of the team will be returning. As Colabello put it, "I really wish I had a few more years to spend here at Assumption as a player because I feel coach Pinzino and the core group of guys coming back in the next few years will really make this program one that will be respected and feared."

One of the Assumption Softball team's most exciting games came in April when they played to a 5-3 win over Southern Connecticut in eight innings. Junior pitcher Shalynn Napolitano recorded the win for the Greyhounds, allowing just five hits and striking out five. Sophomore Caitlin Stazinski earned the save, relieving Napolitano and striking out one batter in one inning pitched.

Offensively Junior third baseman Tania Palumbo went 3 for 4 for the Greyhounds and Freshman catcher Korina Salafia batted a perfect 1.000 going 4 for 4 at the plate. Palumbo and Salafia led the team offensively throughout the season posting impressive batting averages and slugging percentages.

The Assumption Men's Lacrosse team won a number of exciting games throughout the 2005 season. The team won its first game against PACE University in March. Sophomore Neil Donnelly and freshman Matt Klaskin each scored two goals for Assumption, while senior goalkeeper Matt Hoffman recorded 19 saves. On April 5th, the Greyhounds defeated Franklin Pierce by a score of 16-3. Junior Co-Captain Jeremy Bomba recorded three goals and two assists for the Greyhounds while Bryan Parks and Brian Tuomi also netted three goals a piece. Hoffman made 17 saves in the win.

Senior leadership was undoubtedly important to the Greyhounds. Seniors Nick Bonavita, Matt Hoffman, Joe Lancour, and Shawn Huxley were leaders on and off the field for the team. As Bomba said, "Thanks to the seniors, who carried the team."

The Assumption Women's Lacrosse team enjoyed a competitive season which included a number of close games. The team recorded its first win in March with the 13-6 defeat of Southern Connecticut State. The Greyhounds exploded in the second half scoring ten goals on nineteen shots and opening up the game. Junior midfielder Jenny Mongeau and freshman attacker Jenna Goldstein combined for nine goals and three assists between them. During the game Mongeau became the second Assumption player to score 100 career goals. Senior goalkeeper Marjorie Schepp made six saves in the game.

The Greyhounds also recorded impressive wins early in the season against competition such as St. Thomas Aquinas and Franklin Pierce.

The Assumption Men's Tennis team finished a successful 2005 season. The Greyhounds enjoyed an eleven-match winning streak spanning from February to April. In March the Greyhounds were honored being ranked 40th in a national poll and first in the East Region.

Throughout 2005 the Assumption men's tennis team continued their dominance of the Northeast-10 Conference, working toward their 100th consecutive NE-10 win, many coming in the form of 9-0 shutouts.

Senior James Newman was honored at the beginning of the school year when he was awarded the Robbins Scholar-Athlete award as the top Division II male student athlete by the Eastern College Athletic Association.

With four freshmen and three sophomores on the Assumption Women's Tennis team, the future looks bright. Junior captain Katey Hayden led the team through a exciting 2005 season.

The team enjoyed a convincing 9-0 win over American International University in April. Allie Leber, Amanda Boyer, Shannon Steele, Megan Wnuk, Jenna Hagert and Katey Hayden all won their singles matches while the pairings of Leiber and Wnuk, Steele and Boyer, and Hayden and Hagert swept the pairs matches.

The Assumption Men's Track team made the most of their season at Assumption College. Led by captains Ryan Brennan, Joe Kowalczyk, and Casey Hatten, the Men's Track team proved to be competitive throughout 2005.

At the beginning of April, the Greyhounds finished third in the Worcester City Men's Track Championship held at WPI with an overall team score of 168.5. Kowalczyk finished first in the Discus and Shot Put, while Brandon Beloin placed first in the 400 Meter Hurdles. The Greyhounds also got a first place finish in the 400 Meter Relay thanks to the team of J.P. Cormio, Mike Keeling, Casey Hatten and Beloin who finished with a time of 44.61.

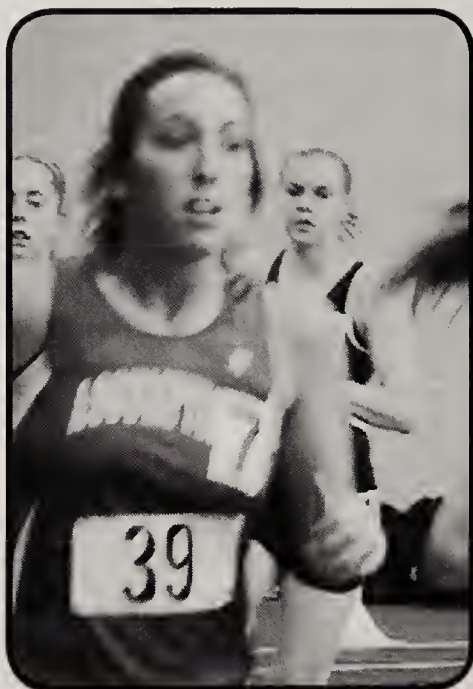

Men's Track and Field

The Women's Track Team competed valiantly, making the most of the season. In April the Greyhounds won their third Worcester City Track Championship. Assumption finished with an overall score of 271, with 89 points separating them from second place WPI.

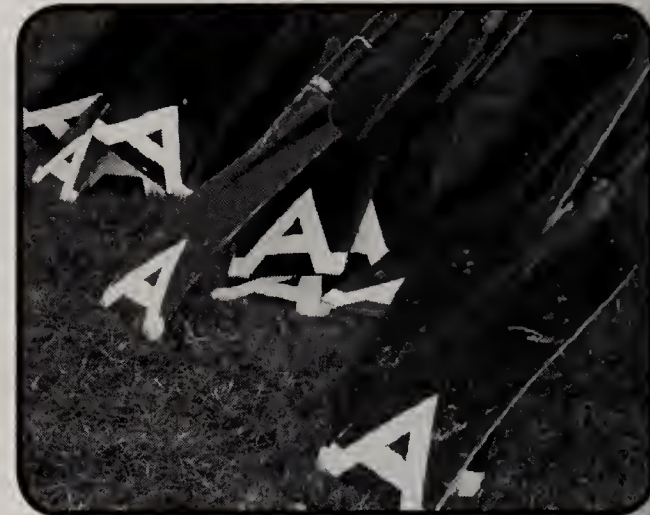

The Greyhounds recorded seven wins in individual competitions thanks to junior Melissa Lalli (javelin), sophomore Nicole Pankey (triple jump, 100 meter), junior Caitlyn Clark (1500 meter, 3000 meter), and senior Lindsay Prior (100 meter hurdles). Assumption got its other first place finish courtesy of Pankey, Prior, and freshmen Lauren King and Teresa Kuehhas, who teamed to win the 400 meter relay with a time of 53.14.

Women's Track and Field

Crew

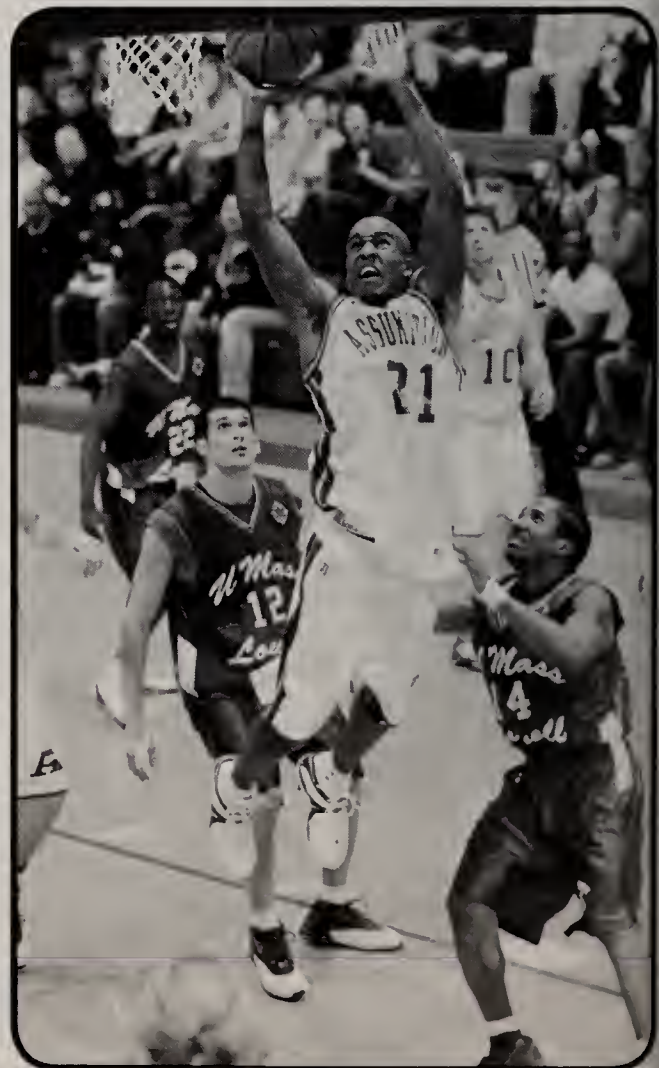

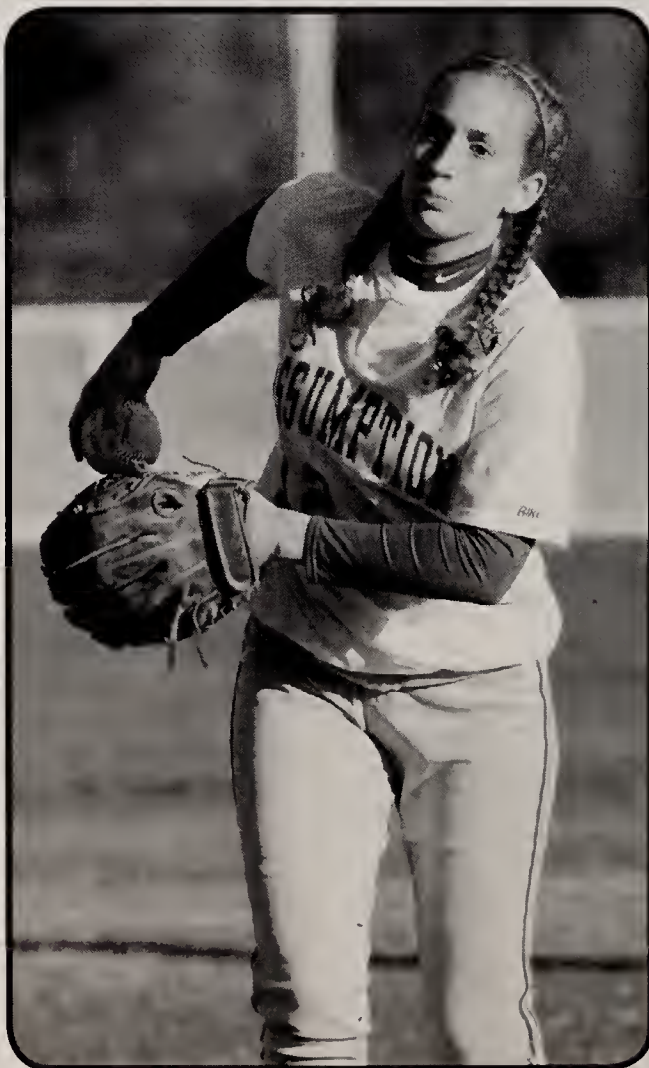

The Assumption Crew Team enjoyed eventful fall and spring seasons. The fall saw the team competing in the Head of the Charles in Boston. Which Captain Jenn Cancelliere considered one of the most exciting moments of the season, saying, "This was probably the highlight of the fall season because although we don't go as a competitive boat just the atmosphere and racing against boats from around the world is an experience that will last a lifetime."

The spring season brought a number of tough competitions. As Cancelliere said, "The team has more heart and desire than most. I guess you need that when practice requires a daily 4am wake up call."

The students of Assumption College were welcomed back with an action packed week which was planned by Campus Activities Board. Students who attended these events were given free neon green t-shirts. Hypnotist C.J. Johnson made boys take off their shirts, dance around, and some even thought that their shoes were puppies. The students enjoyed seeing their fellow classmates make fools of themselves under the persuasion of C.J. Johnson. The reggae band Tribal Legacy blew everyone away in Charlie's with a funk, hip-hop, and rock rhythm. Many of the audience members danced on stage with the band and everyone had a great time. Later that week, Taylor Dining Hall was decorated with a Hawaiian theme for Luau Bingo where many great prizes were given away. Other events like comedian D. C. Benny, big-screen movies, and trips to Boston and Six Flags made the week unforgettable.

First Night Out

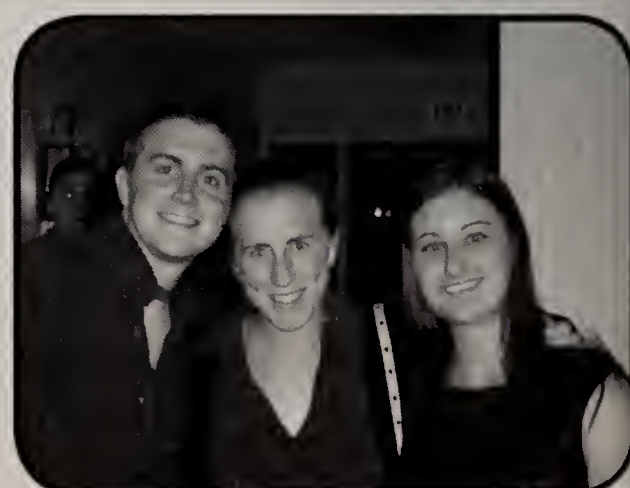

Holiday Inn

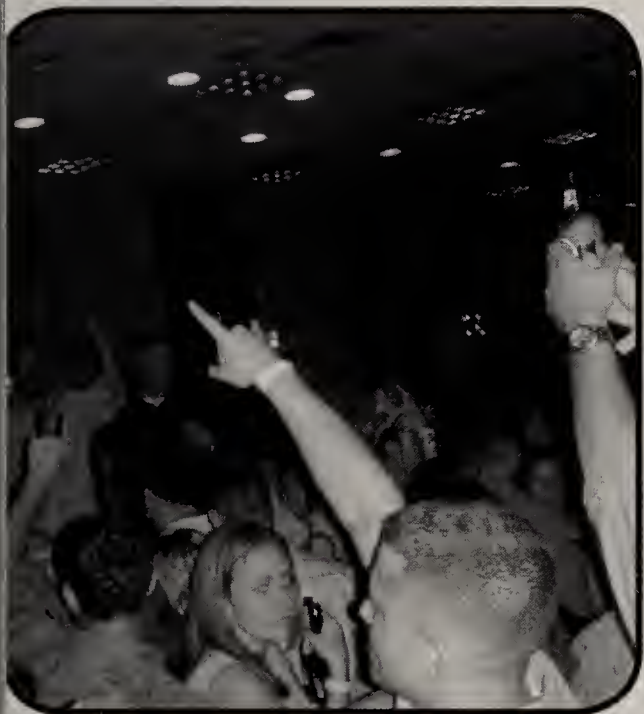

September 10th, 2004

On the night of September 10, 2004, the Senior class gathered at the Holiday Inn to celebrate the opening of their last year as students of Assumption College. The night consisted of dancing and laughter. A DJ was on hand to provide base-bumping tunes allowing for an enjoyable and memorable evening.

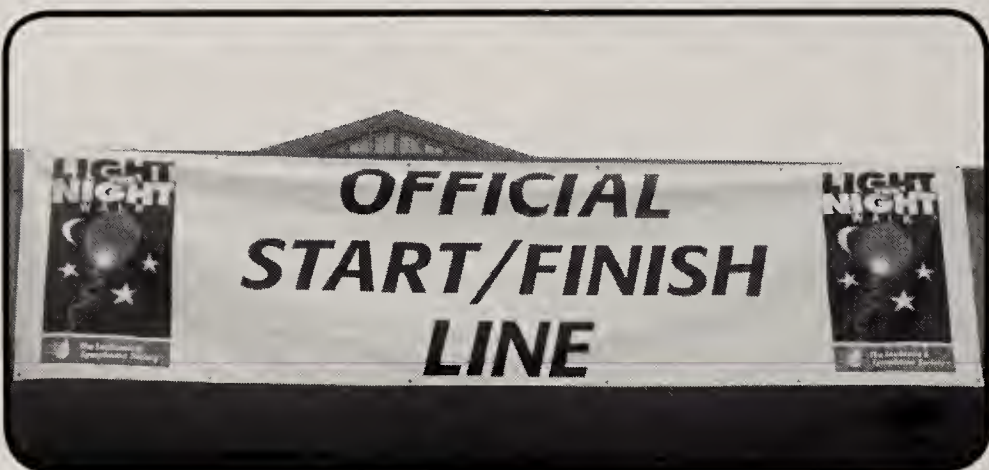

As the night culminated, many were wishing their journey through college was just beginning again. First Night Out helped make the Assumption experience unique and special for the Class of 2005. It not only provided a bittersweet remembrance of the past, but most importantly, it represented the future of each member of the family we call the Class of 2005.

This year's Light the Night was the most successful walk here at Assumption College. The support of both the Assumption community and of outside organizations was phenomenal. This year Assumption raised almost $60,000, $9,000 more than the initial goal. In addition to the huge amount of money raised, there was almost four hundred people that participated in the walk. The support and enthusiasm of the Assumption community was incredible.

Founder's Day

October 1st, 2004

As part of the Centennial, Assumption College celebrated Founder's Day. This event marked the 100th Anniversary of the first day of classes held at the college. Founder's Day was open to all students, faculty, staff, administration, alumni, and their families. Mass in the Chapel of the Holy Spirit started the celebration. After mass, the Augustinian of the Assumption awarded the d'Alzon Medal to Francis P. Gurley, who is the college's Executive Vice President/Treasurer. Mass was followed by a feast held on the Hagan Campus Center lawn. During the feast musical entertainment was provided by John Rush. Also a balloonist and a magician performed for everyone to enjoy. That evening, students rushed to the football field to watch a display of fireworks light up the sky. The celebration ended with an a capella group, Five O'clock Shadow, performing in Charlie's. It was a great way to celebrate AC's 100 years!

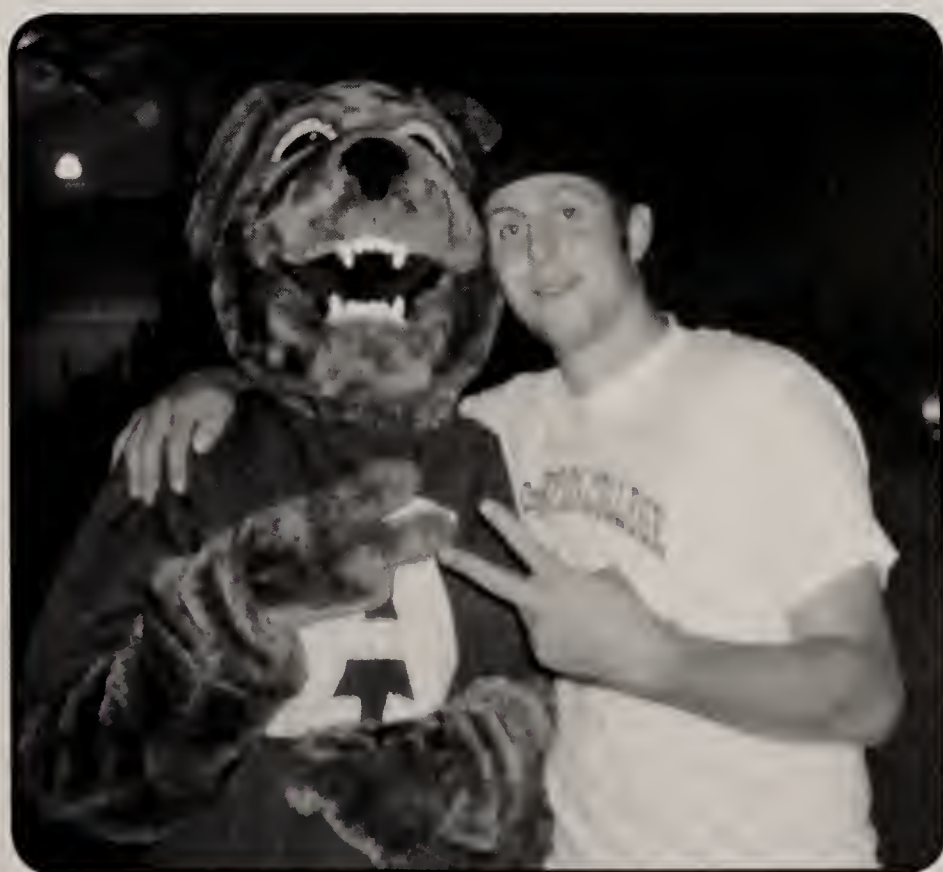

Midnight Madness

October 14th, 2004

Midnight Madness took place on Thursday October 14th. The event began in the lobby of Laska gymnasium with a mechanical bull. Andrew Themeles, Mike Dunlea, and Adam Thomas performed in Charlie's. The main event was a huge success with attendance at a little under a thousand. Throughout the night there were tons of giveaways and competitions which included a slam dunk contest, and a half court shoot out. In addition, the Assumption Cheerleaders, Dance, and Step Teams performed for the crowd. The highlight of the night was the introduction of the Men's and Women's Basketball teams. Midnight Madness pumped up the campus for the upcoming season.

Action! OK, so Worcester isn't actually NYC, but for one weekend Assumption did resemble Broadway. BINGO, an all time Assumption favorite, kicked off this year's Family weekend. Following the Broadway themed games the AC Choral performed a cabaret, showcasing Broadway and Disney songs. The festivities continued into Saturday which included an exciting football game in which we were victorious over Pace. Throughout the day a kids carnival was held where our younger siblings could play games and get their faces painted. A performance by the AC Band provided afternoon entertainment, and Saturday night entertainment consisted of AC's "Night with the Stars". Comedian John Bush provided many laughs, while the AC Chorale did an encore performance. Family weekend concluded Sunday with mass in the Chapel and a "Breakfast at Tiffany's" style brunch.

On Tuesday, October 5th Assumption College hosted a Town Meeting for the 2004 Presidential Election in the Hagan Campus Center. That same night, members of the class of 2005 braved the cold and attended the Peaceful Protest where policy changes for on-campus living were discussed. One policy students passionately discussed-with red cups in hand-was the open container policy. Inside, the Town Meeting welcomed all students from within the consortium as well as faculty, staff, and community members. The meeting began with an airing of the Vice-Presidential debate between Vice President Dick Cheney and North Carolina Senator John Edwards. After the debate, Margery Eagen and Jim Braude from 96.9 Talk Radio hosted an open question and answer session which was broadcast live on the radio. Concluding the night was a candlelight vigil at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit. -Le Provocateur Volume 40, Number 3

Poker Tournament

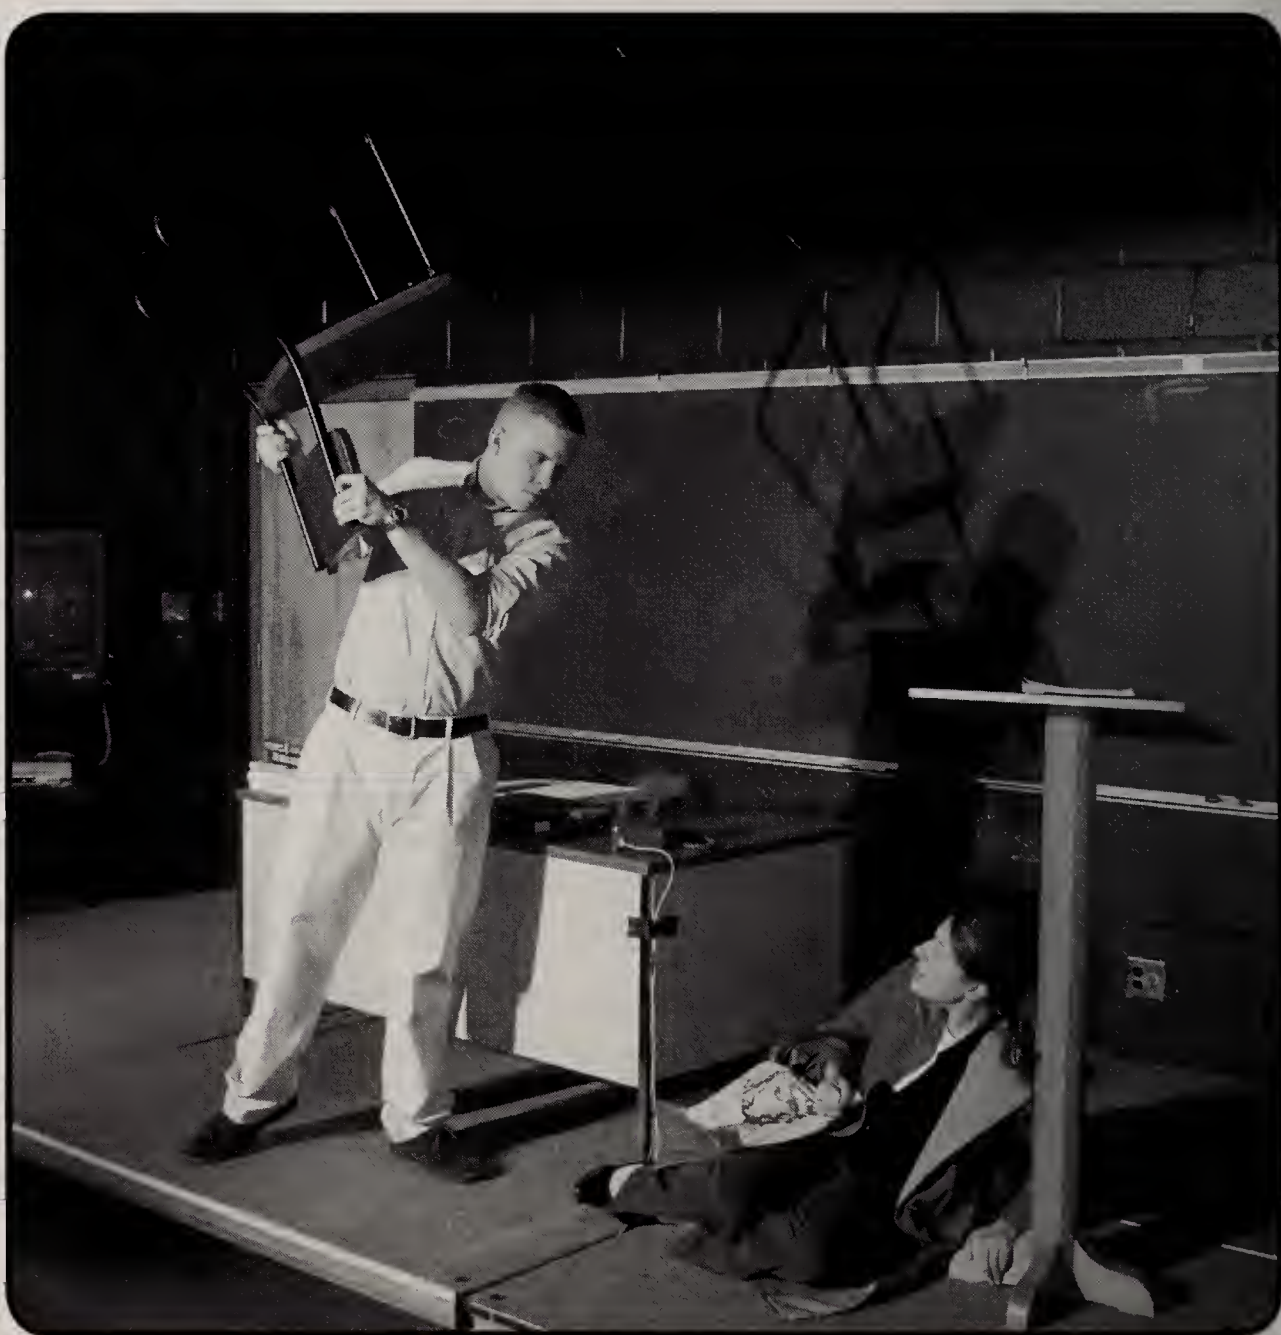

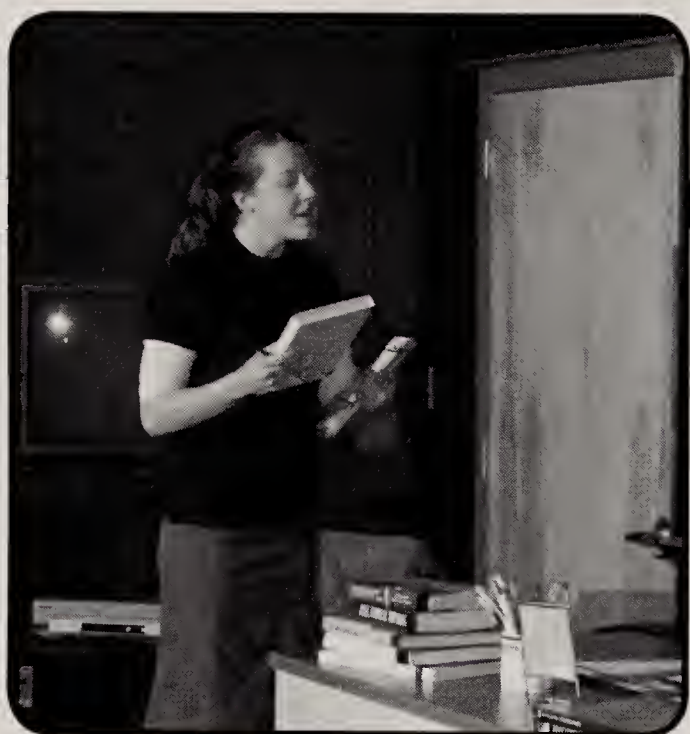

November 11th and 13th, 2004

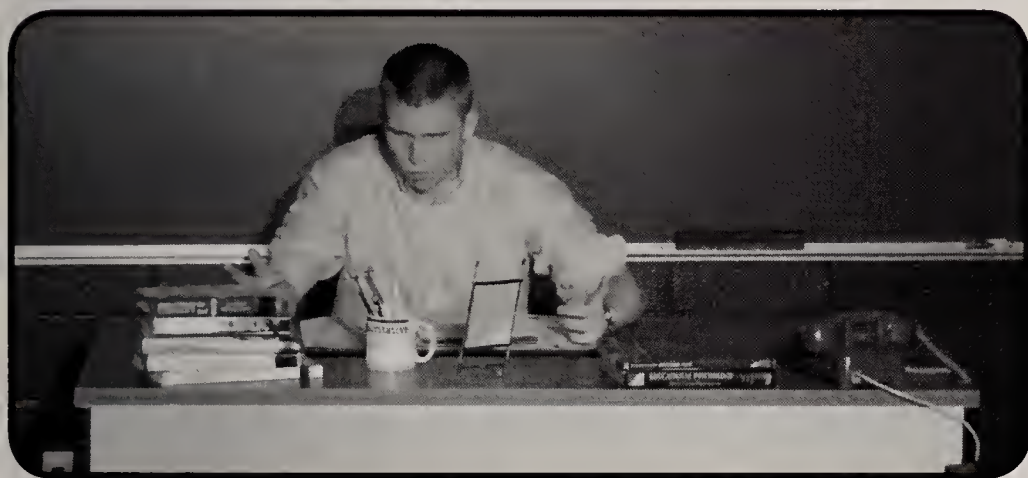

On November 11th at 6:30 p.m., the first Assumption College Celebrity Poker Tournament started off with a field of about sixty poker players in the Hagan Campus Center Hall. After about three and a half hours it was down to the final nine players who advanced to the Championship round on Saturday, November 13th in Charlie's. The top nine consisted of Tim O'Brien, Matt Vail, Charles Rizzio, Jon Cohen, Elizabeth Penta, Sara Burley, Ryan Ames, Thomas Trombly, and Matt Duplin. The tournament was well played but finally wound down to the final two, Tim O'Brien and Gina Esposito. With a big chip stack and a few strong plays Tim O'Brien came out on top and took home combined prizes totaling $250.00 in gift certificates while Gina Esposito took home a $100 gift certificate. With great success, we look forward to holding more tournaments. - Thomas Clark

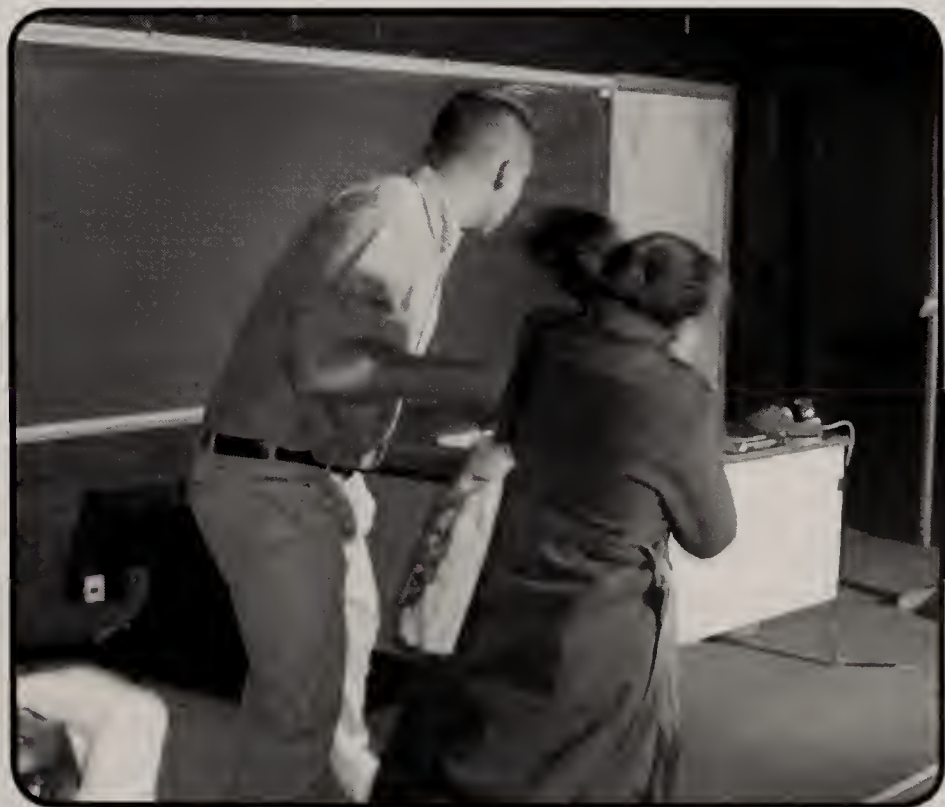

Fall Play

November 18th-21st, 2004

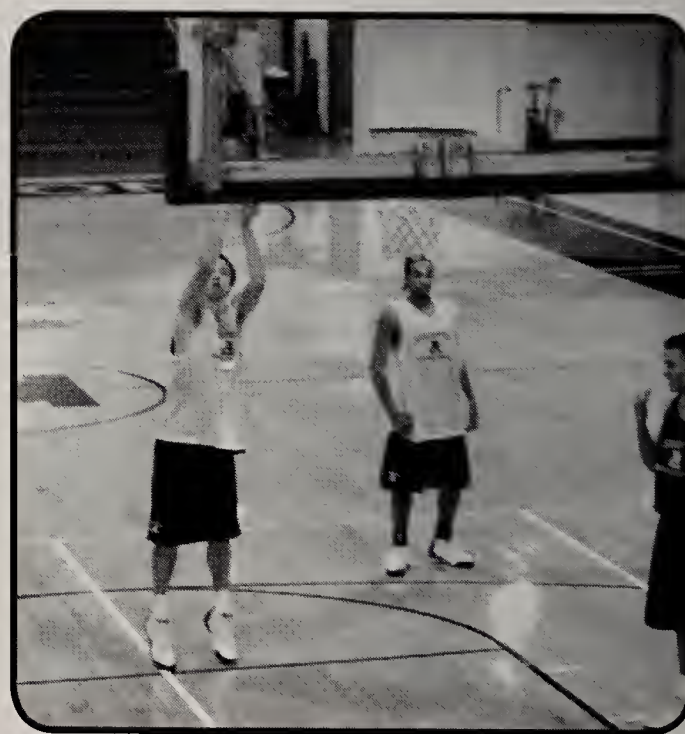

Oleanna, a play by David Mamet and directed by Brian Tivnan, tells the story of a female college student who accuses her professor of sexual harassment and of being a "bad" teacher. Jake Hutchings and Sarah Gower were the two principle actors in the production. Both Jake and Sarah have been in many productions Assumption's Theatre department has put on. Jake played the arrogant professor while Sara played the innocent and determined college student. Both actors portrayed their characters beautifully, their hard work and long hours paid off. The play was held in a stadium style room in the Kennedy Science Building. The play ran for four nights. Students and faculty who attended also took part in a debate which followed the shows. The overall theme of the play and debate was: battle of the sexes, is there a winner?

Blue & White Game

November 3rd, 2004

On Wednesday November 3, the men of the Assumption Hounds basketball team brought a new tradition to Assumption. Actually, it was an old tradition that had been revived by Head Coach Tom Ackerman, Assistant Coach Casey Carney, and the men's team to offer an exciting experience for the fans, better known as the "Hound Pound." The tradition dates back to the time when former Coach O'Brien was still here at AC. The purpose of the Blue and White Game, then and now, was twofold: providing positions for both the team and the fans. The team has the chance to play together in front of an actual crowd before the season begins, giving the coaches the option to see the players work together on the court and respond to a fan base. For the fans, it was an option to not only pick up a free "Hound Pound" t-shirt to wear on game days, but also to see the players display their talents. -Le Provocateur Vol. 40

Holiday Ball

Worcester Centrum

December 3rd 2004

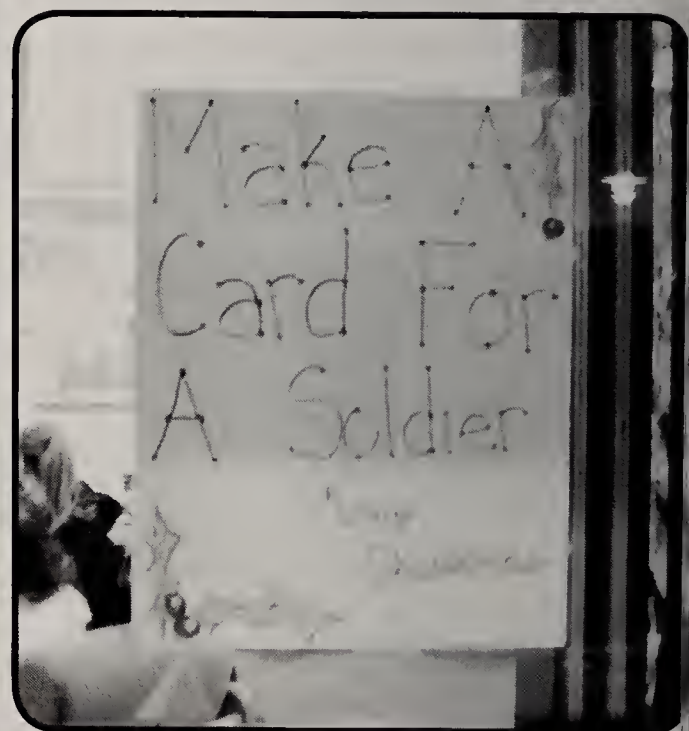

This year's "A Night on the Boulevard" themed Holiday Ball was a night to remember for Assumption's soon to be graduating Seniors, Juniors, and their guests. CAB hosted the event which turned out to be a great success and fun time for all those who attended. Students packed in school buses to head to the Centrum where they had a cocktail hours, dinner and then danced the night away on a packed dance floor. It was a great night for the students to get dressed up, get off campus for a night, and leave with a handful of memories.

"ANight on the Boulevard"

Christmas Week 2004

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas! Kicking off the start of the holiday season was a Christmas Tree lighting outside on Hagan Campus Lawn. Along with Christmas caroling the crowd enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies. President Plough also spoke and then Father Gallagher blessed the tree. Ryan Brennan organized the event. The last day of classes marked Assumption's 3rd Annual "Christmas in Charlie's." A table was set up in Charlie's for students to make cards to send to the soldiers in Iraq to make their holidays more enjoyable. Students made ornaments, ate Christmas cookies, and drank eggnog. During this week students were donated money to charity and gifts for the Giving Tree. Christmas week 2004 was a huge success and all students and staff were in the holiday spirit.

Siblings' Weekend

Siblings' Weekend took place on Friday February 25th through Sunday February 27th. This year's theme was "Willy Wonka and the Assumption Factory." Siblings' Weekend is a great opportunity for Assumption students to have their brothers and sisters visit to do fun things. This year there was bingo, an ice cream social, open swimming in the Plourde, and the movie "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory." Taylor Dining Hall was decorated with balloons, nice tablecloths, and other fun things for the siblings and the students to enjoy. The highlights of the weekend were the carnival in the gym and the band Recycled Percussion. This weekend was sponsored by Campus Activities Board who were lead by Siblings' Weekend Executives Allison Depasse, Adam Landry, and Kristen Griswold. Everyone had fun and siblings are already looking forward to next year.

Spring Break Mission 2005

Every year Assumption students skip the traditional Spring Break and instead go on a mission, sponsored by Campus Ministry. Trips this year included Philadelphia and Lansdale PA, and the Bronx. Here is the story of one trip:

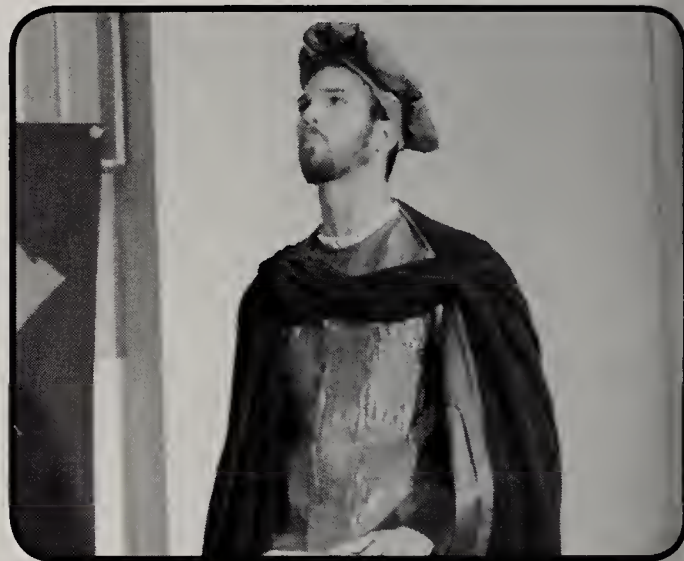

This spring break some of my friends went to Mexico, some Jamaica, and some to the Bahamas. Instead of the typical "hot spot" I decided to take advantage of our spring break mission program and spend a week in West Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In West Philadelphia I visited Holy Family Home, New Jerusalem. At Holy Family Home I helped serve lunch and played bingo with the residents. During the rest of my trip I visited New Jerusalem a rehabilitation program for people serious about their recovery from narcotics. The members of New Jerusalem were eager to share their stories and words of wisdom with me.

Throughout the week we discussed the negative effects of narcotics in a person's life, role played both humorous and dangerous situations, and bonded with one another. By the end of the week I saw the New Jerusalem members not as recovering individuals but as my new aunts and uncles. Prayer and reflection was an important aspect to this trip, each day I had time to reflect on my reasons for going to Pennsylvania. Going on this mission trip truly allowed me to form bonds with people and to put my Christian faith into practice.

Romeo and Juliet

March 18th - March 20th

Romeo and Juliet, directed by Brian Tivnan, struck Assumption College this year. A pair of star-crossed lovers feuding with their families fell in love and met death with a vial of poison and a dagger. Romeo was played by John Berthiaume and Juliet was played by Eve Sumer. The play took place in the Atrium Theatre of the Testa Science Center. Current students, alumni, and an administrator made up the cast of the first Shakespeare piece performed on campus. Marc Sawyer as Mercutio, John Plough as Prince Escalus, Sarah Gower as Benvolio, and Ariel Barilla as Tybalt made this a great performance. To make the play more realistic the cast learned to swordfight from a professional and wore realistic costumes, including brocade jackets and tights. Live flute music and all characters used traditional Old English speech were also used.

Battle of the Bands

Battle of the Bands went head to head in Charlie's for a great and entertaining night. Featured bands included Thrown, The Strand, Defeat Lost, Five Central, and September Twilight. Judges were on hand to determine the best band and the winner was...September Twilight. Student turnout for this night was great. Many students from campus are in some of these bands like Mike Dunlea, Jared Donnelly, and Luke DelCid. The winner of Battle of the Bands got the chance to open up for Spring Fever. Everyone who participated had fun and it was a great job by all.

Spring Ball

April 2nd, 2005

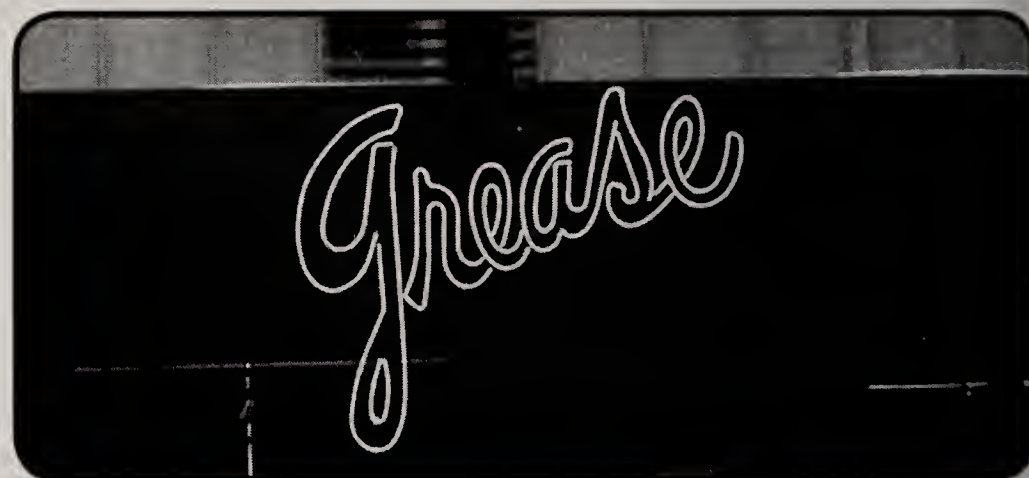

The 2005 Spring Ball at Assumption College was a smashing success. It took place on Saturday, April 2nd at the Holiday Inn for Seniors, Juniors, and their guests. The theme this year was "Wherever You Will Go." The Spring Ball was made possible due to the hard-working efforts of Stacy MacDonald, Chairperson of the Formal Events Committee of CAB. "The ball couldn't have gone better," Stacy commented. The evening began with a reception of appetizers and the dinner began at 7:00. The Spring Ball was an extremely enjoyable occasion. Students who attended the Ball will always have fond memories of this enjoyable occasion. Everyone had a great time dancing to songs such as "Staying Alive", "Don't Stop Believing" and "Cotton Eye Joe."

Grease was the word around campus this spring. Grease was directed by Liz Borg and choreographed by Matt Parello. Starring in this year's rendition were Matt Jannace as Danny Zuko, Dan Kowal as Kenickie, Dan Carelli as Sonny, Lindsey Haxton as Sandy, Ariel Barilla as Frenchy, Eve Broffman as Jan, Jaqui Greene as Rizzo, Kat Murphy as Patty, Kristina Maila as Marty, and Elijah Bland as the Teen Angel. The play is about a group of 1950's teenagers as they enter their last year at Rydell High School. Grease offers plenty of talented singers, dancers, a suped up car, and a teen idol. Part of its appeal lies within its ability to overstep decades and focus on issues that are as prominent in teenagers' lives today as they were in the 50's. If you need a modern excuse to do the hand jive, then this play is what you are looking for. Jen Quinn-Provoc Issue 12

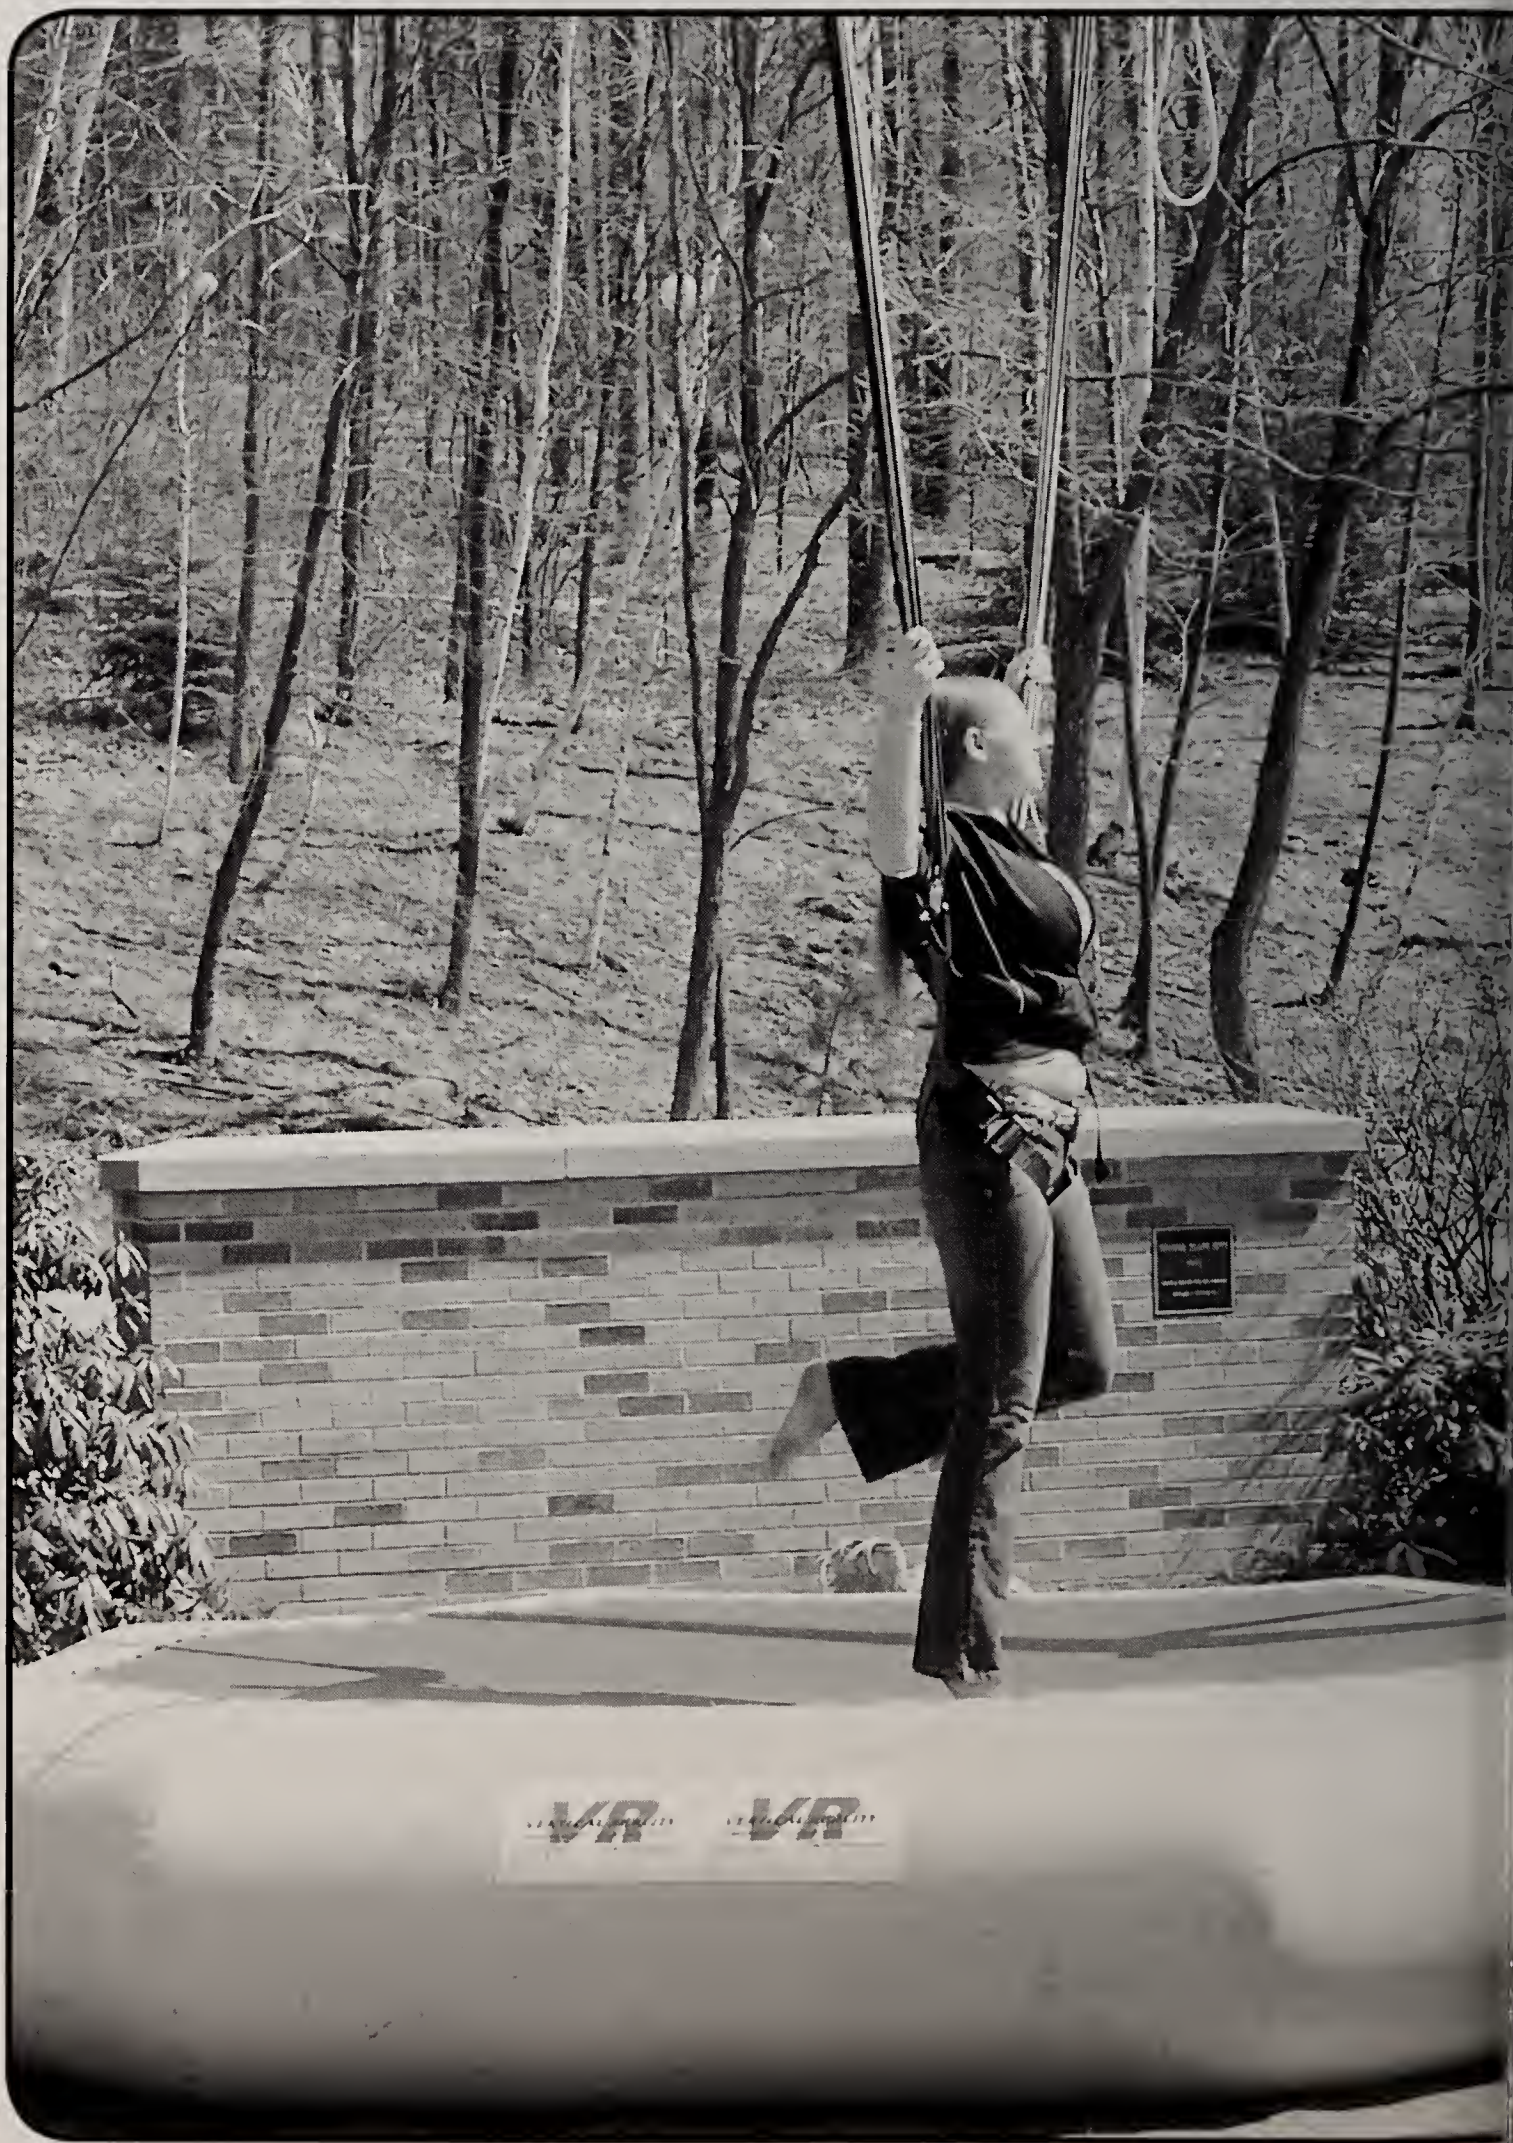

Grease Is The Word

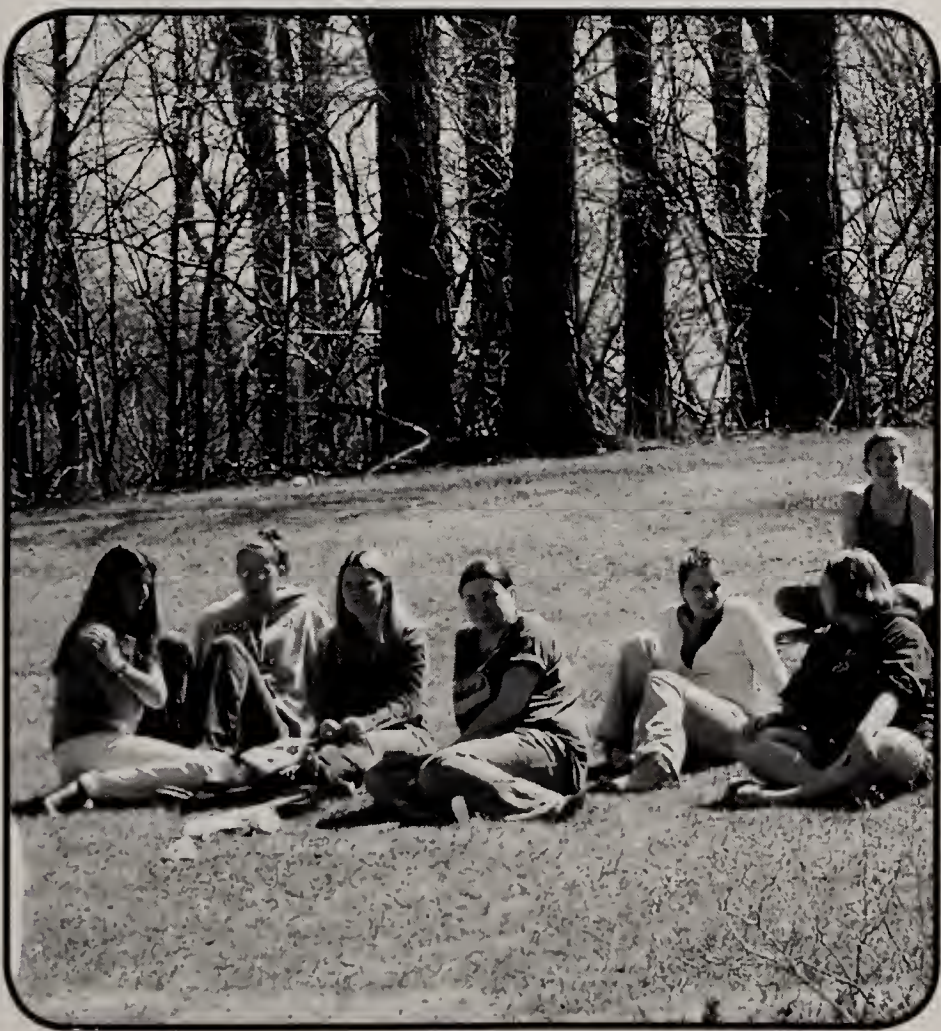

Spring Fever

April 16th, 2005

Seventy degrees? In mid-April? That is exactly what happened the weekend of this year's Spring Fever. On April 16th, 2005, Hagan Campus Center Lawn was turned into a full out party. Hosted by CAB, Spring Fever kicked into gear mid afternoon when September Twilight took the stage. Volleyball games, rock climbing walls, and inflatable bungee jumps sprawled the lawn.

For those not playing, there were snow cones, cotton candy, and soft pretzels to fill your tummy (or at least hold you over until the BBQ). With three bands playing throughout the day, free food, and amazing weather Spring Fever was a huge success.

New England Sports Fever

Sports Fever hit it big for New England fans this past year because of the teams we know and love. The Boston Red Sox and The New England Patriots were huge this year. The Red Sox won their first World Series in eighty-six years. The Patriots went on to win yet another Super Bowl. Can we say dynasty?

When the Red Sox won Assumption students went crazy running around campus. Grades declined since no one had time for anything except for the Soxs and Patriots. This was a great year for New England fans and we all hope it continues on in the future.

Senior START Retreat

Oakhurst Retreat Center

February 18th-19th, 2005

On February 50 Seniors headed out to Oakhurst Retreat Center in Whitinsville, MA for a one night Senior START Retreat. The Senior START Retreat is a spin-off of the START 1 Retreat (Students Talking About Religious Topics).

The retreat is a great way for seniors to come together and reflect over their past few years here at Assumption. While on this retreat students were able to laugh, sign, cry and dance their way into a new bond with classmates.

Highlights of this weekend included some amazing talks by fellow classmates, the skits put on by the Entertainment Crew, and the late night TV Theme Show Sing-Along. The Senior START Retreat was a great success and will be remembered for years to come.

Howie Day

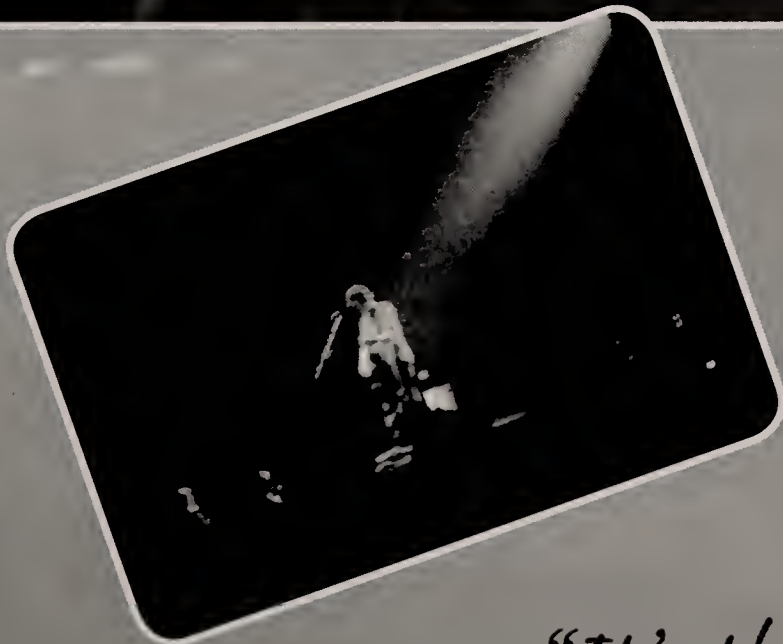

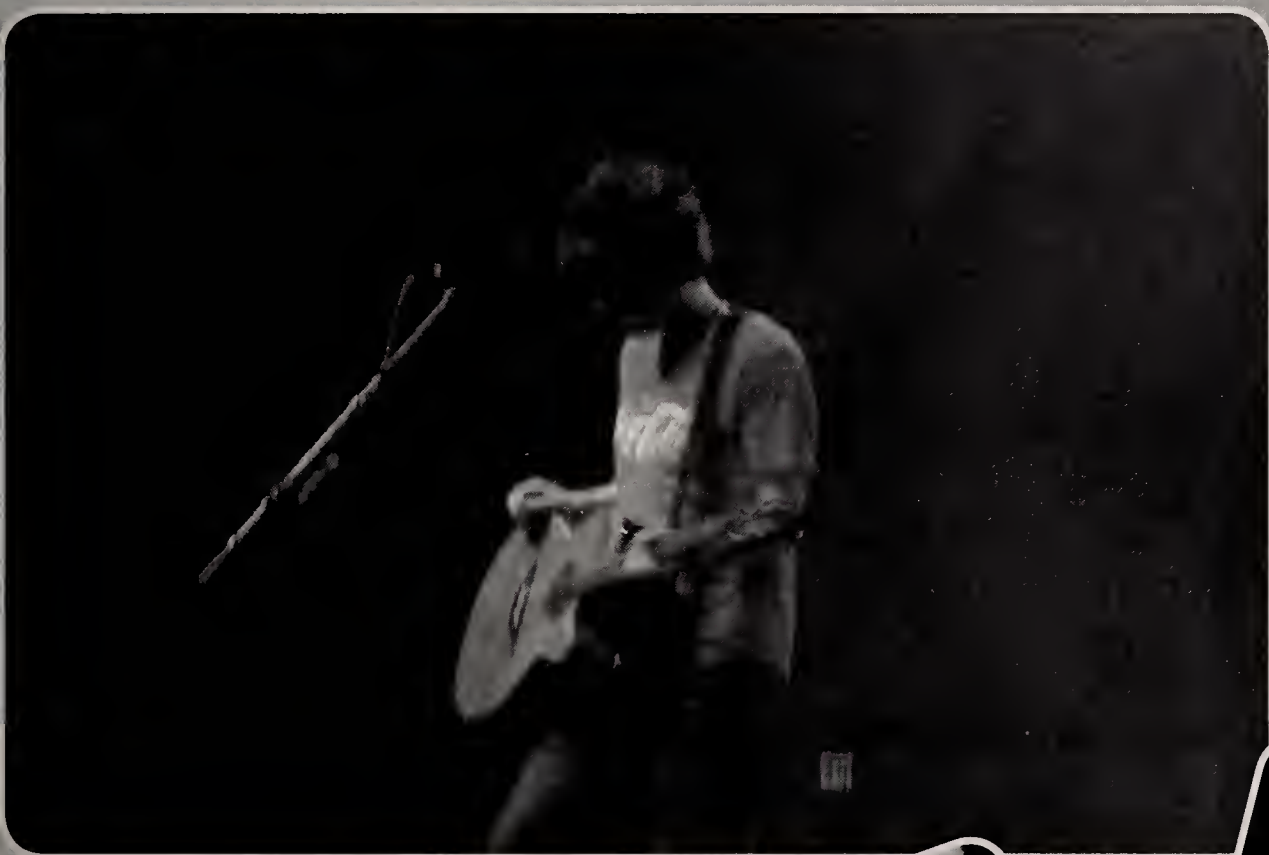

April 23, 2005

Rain didn't keep the fans away. On Saturday, April 23rd, Howie Day returned to Assumption for his fourth time and brought with him numerous fans. It didn't take long for the Plourde Recreation Center to fill up or for the crowd to grow rowdy in anticipation of this year's Spring concert which had been pushed back two weeks.

The concert opened with Eric Stepanian who played a mellow set, much like Day. As Stepanian continued to play, the anticipation grew for the crowd, until, finally, can it be? Yes! Howie Day took the stage. Day played many songs from his first album, as well as numerous new songs. Don't you worry, "Collide" and "She Says" were also in there. Day concluded his concert by playing an encore of "Hallelujah" and "Ghost."

Day had fun with the audience doing a medley of songs from the 90's (to prove they all sound the same) and asking who wanted to play basketball. The event was enjoyed by all in attendance.

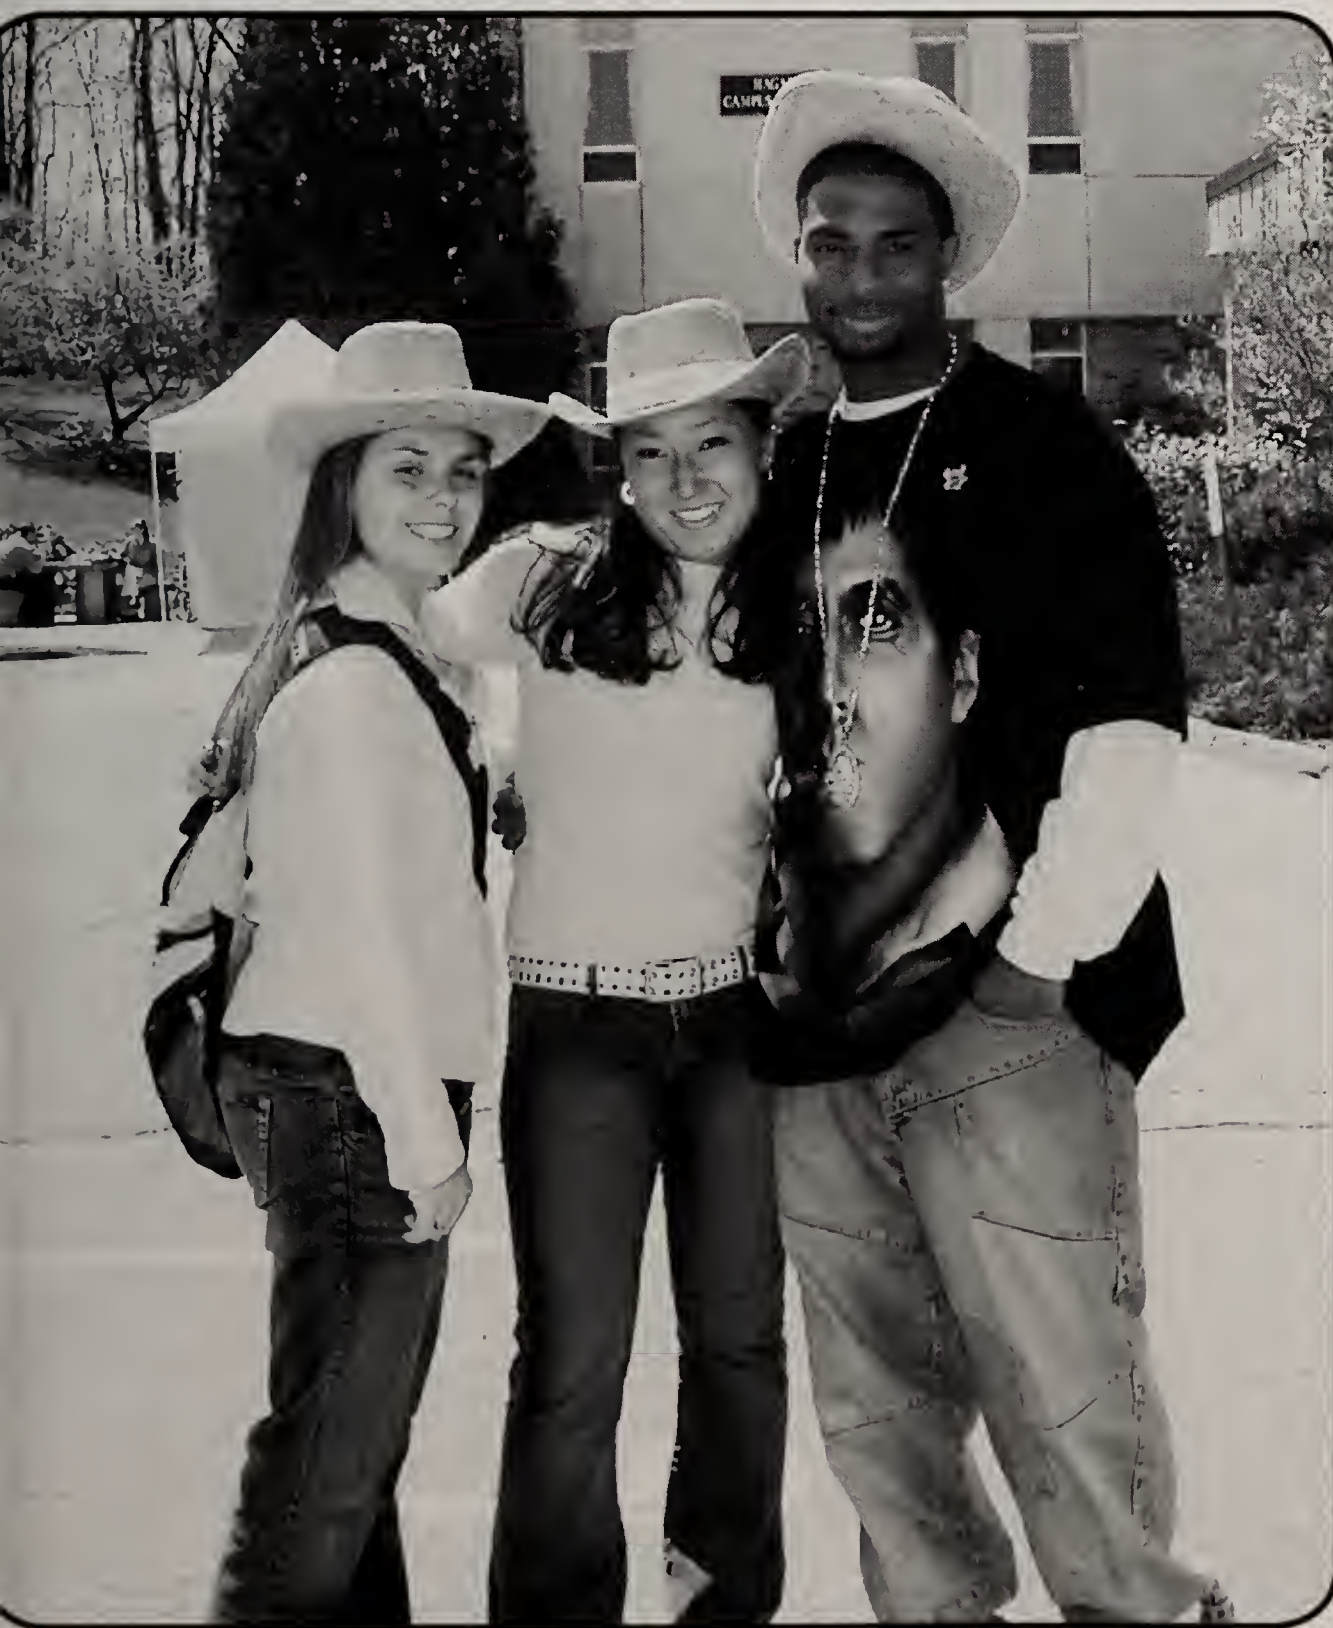

"It's the perfect time of day."

Lasso Your Last Day

Last Day of Classes
May 2nd, 2005

Can you believe how fast this year flew by? On May 2nd, 2005 CAB ended the year by throwing a Western Theme Last Day of Classes Party. With free food, volleyball, horseshoes, and of course, free cowboy hats, what more could CAB do to help us celebrate another successful year?

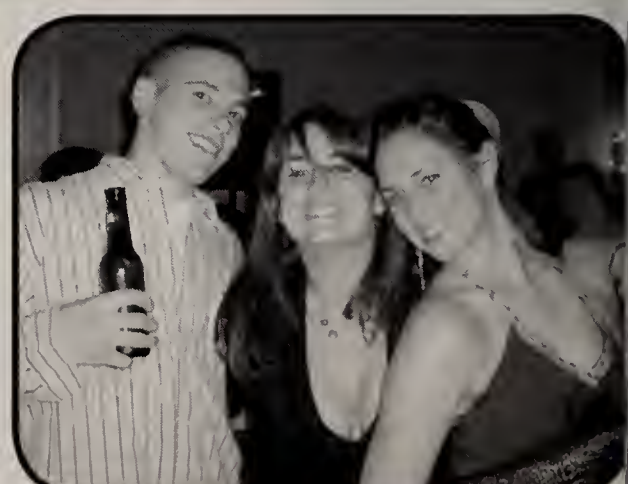

Last Night Out

Holiday Inn
April 29th, 2005

"B-A-N-A-N-A-S" This is just one of the many lines the Senior class screamed out while on the dance floor. On Friday, April 29th, the Senior class came together to celebrate their final year at their Last Night Out. Throughout the night many memories of the past four years were exchanged and lots of hugs were given. Last Night Out was a great way to join the class for one final night.

- Ryan Brennan grabs two of his favorite professors, Dan Mahoney & Peter Schultz, for a quick picture.

- Jim "Woody" Wood, and Erin Ahearn relax on the patio.

- Dave Cantu and Rich Scialabba sit with Erin McLaughlin on the patio.

Senior week officially started Tuesday afternoon with the annual Faculty/Senior BBQ. Around 4:30 on the sunny afternoon the Senior Class streamed down to Charlie's back patio where they were joined by faculty members of the college. With John Rush on hand to provide entertainment and tables piled high with food, it didn't take long for this party to get started.

- J.P. Cormio and Mike "Sunny" Albrich enjoy some of the refreshing lemonade with a fellow classmate.

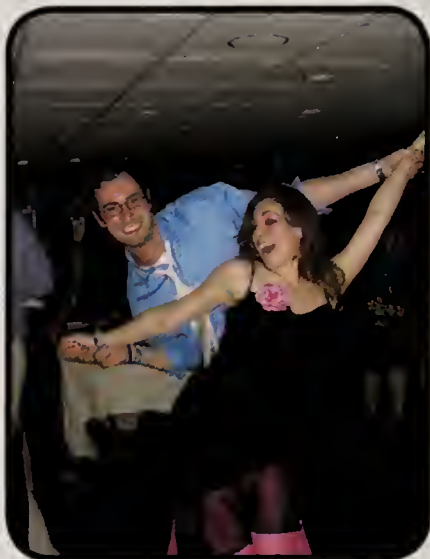

Any onlooker could tell just how well the Seniors and the Faculty members got along. These are some lifelong bonds which will not be broken anytime soon.

- Professors Sorenso, Zielger, Beau-regard stand on the hill talking about the BBQ.

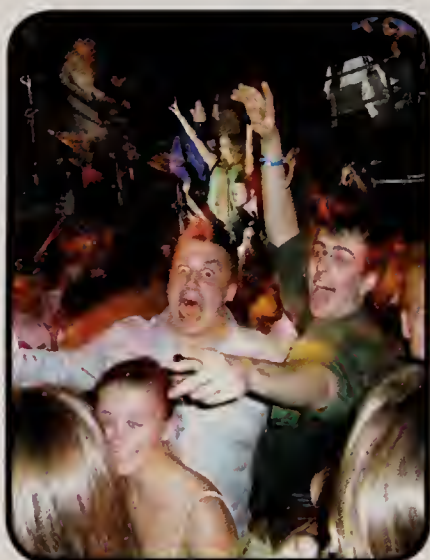

Senior/Faculty BBQ

Moonlight Cruise

- Rob Eaton and Julie Durkin dance the night away upon the cruise

- Two excited members of the Senior Class jump out of the crowd
- Becca Freyenhagen and Meghan Dowling get together for a photo

The Senior Class dressed to the nines and loaded into a line of glamorous yellow school buses and to head into Boston for a Moonlight Harbor Cruise. Despite one bus detouring through the streets of Marlborough, all students arrived in Boston ready to party the night away.

The Seniors didn't need to wait long for the boat to set sail. With full reign of two floors of the boat, the Assumption Seniors fell right into place. A full appetizer bar on hand enabled the Seniors to fill their stomachs.

Inside the boat the Seniors filled the dance floor where a DJ on hand spun many of the class' favorite songs. If dancing wasn't your thing or you just needed a quick place to cool off, the boat offered some outdoor decks. Despite the wind, many Seniors headed outside to enjoy the views of Boston Harbor at night. It was a magical night for many Assumption Seniors.

The cruise ended at 2. The Senior Class loaded back onto the school buses and slept on the way back to school, exhausted from a day of fun.

- The Senior Class packed the dance floor

- Tim Hinz and Frankie pose for a photo on one of the ships outside deck.

- Jack Dixon laughs at friend Mike Britt

- Kristin Costello, "KMAC", and Sheila Fleming smile happily.

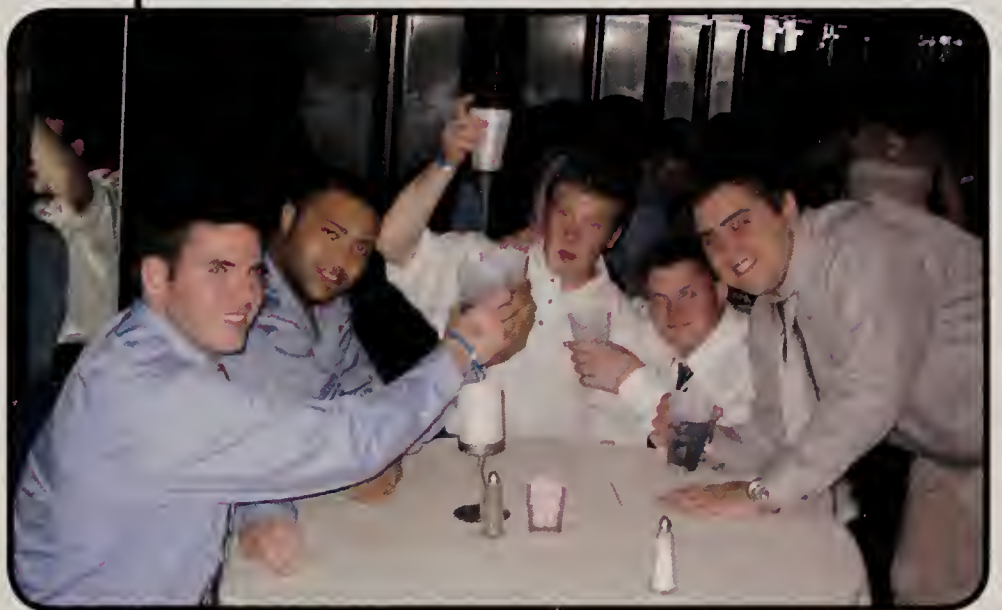

- Allison Burns grabs some friends for a quick photo

- Nick Laffin and Ivy Stabel grin for the camera.

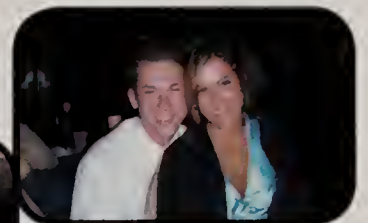

- Jason Farmer and Meaghan Moran take a break from dancing

● Friends pose together for a quick photo.

● Jeff Moore, "Fish", Brad Zepko, Trion Hancock, and Paul Randozzo toast to four amazing years.

- Courtney D'Angelis, Cari Rogers, Steph Prastine, and Ryan Brennan huddle together with friends for a quick photo

- Becca Freyenhagen, Tim Hinz, and Julie Phinney take a break from dancing

- Megan Chenaille and Frankie Ambrogio dance at the Improper
- Jason Farmer and Katelyn Henry back at the hotel
- Roommates Rowena Cowie and Ashley McGurn pose for the camera
- Jimmy Plunkett gets some of the senior girls to dance with him on stage
- Members of the senior class gather together for a quick photo
- Katie Tilton and Craig Lonegan smile for the camera

- Jeff Lavery and Keith Lussier sway to the music of Jimmy Plunkett

After a late night of dancing on Boston Harbor the Senior Class awoke groggily on Wednesday afternoon, threw some clothes into a bag, and headed for Cape Cod. Arriving in Cape Cod the Seniors quickly came together in the hotel, unpacked their things and got ready to head out for a night on the town.

Dinner was held at the Speakeasy Restaurant in Dennisport. The fare consisted of a full Italian Buffet. Many students were kept entertained by the "flash" bartenders and their many tricks.

After dinner it was time for the Improper Bostonian, a local bar in Dennisport, open only to Assumption College Seniors on this night. Jimmy Plunkett provided the entertainment. He was able to unite the entire Senior Class to put their arms around each other and sing the night away. Plunkett helped to make this night one of the most memorable nights at Assumption for many students.

After the Improper it was back to the hotel where all the Seniors fell fast asleep. Well, OK, so maybe they didn't fall asleep, but they did have an unforgettable night.

- The Senior Class dances the night away at the Improper Bostonian.

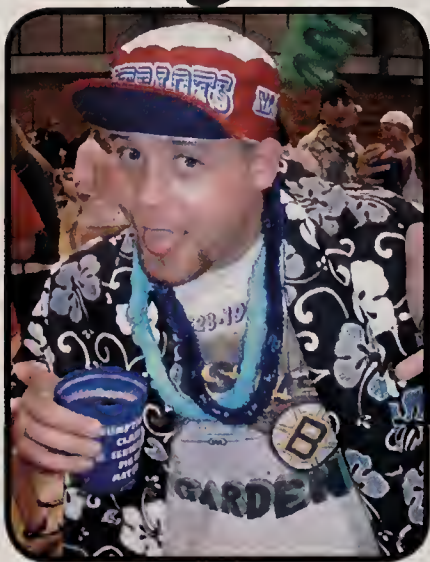

- Bear hug! There is nothing like giving a friend a good old fashion hug.

Night on Cape

Pig Party

- Kevin "Kitty" Kittredge shows his class spirit by dressing up in luau gear

- Brad Zepko hugs his new friend: the palm tree

Senior Week ended with a Pig Roast held in Laska Gymnasium. Dinner consisted of kabobs, corn on the cob, fruit, and peel your own shrimp. Although dinner wasn't an actual pig, a roasted pig was on hand for decoration.

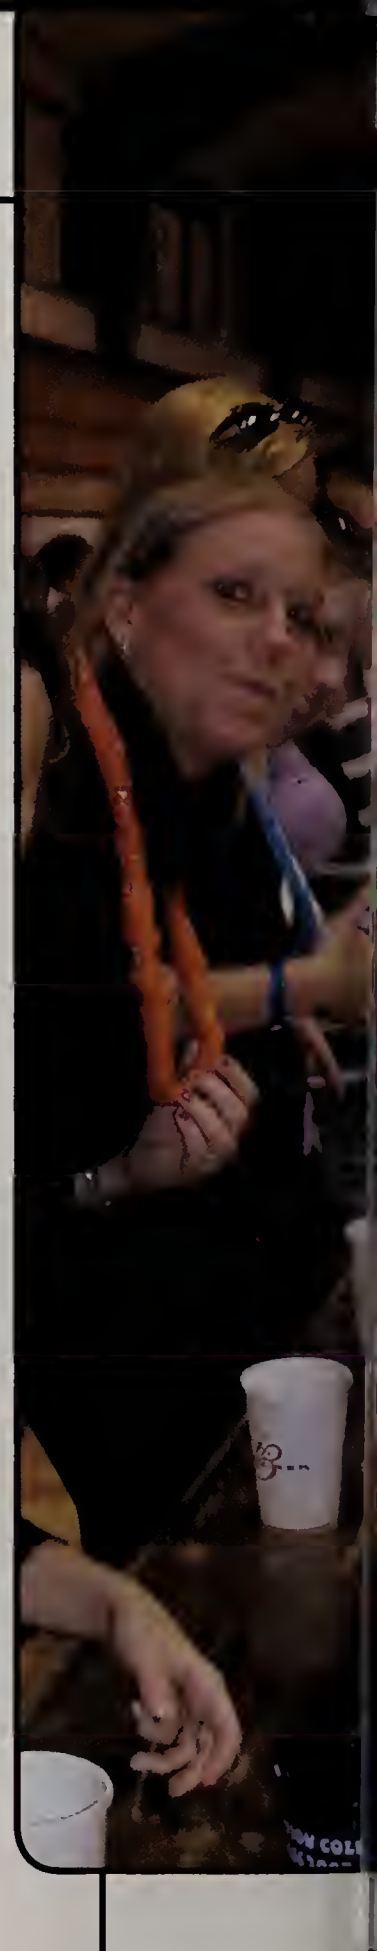

The band, The Zoo, was on hand to take requests for songs. After dinner the Senior Class continued the excitement with impromptu games, including limbo and an indoor slip-and-slide. The Pig Roast was a great way to wrap up an exciting Senior Week.

- Members of the Senior Class show you don't need to be in grade school to enjoy hitting a beach ball around

- Matt Holmes enjoys the slip-n-slide with an inflatable monkey
- Aisha Mendez receives assistance in getting up after her turn on the slip-n-slide
- Melissa Rijo and Sara Burley take a break from eating for a photo with a friend

- Meaghan Moran and Caitlin Henry are ready for the pig roast
- Members of "The Zoo" perform for Assumption Seniors
- Christina Terranova and Caitlyn Haggarty at the pig roast

● Adam Knight and Brett Bouley show off their choice of hats

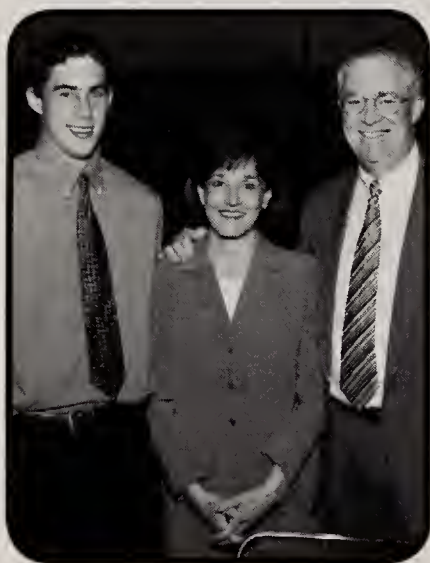

● Apartment 6X residents Charles Dobrowski, Nick Laffin, Jeff Lavery, Brain Vodhen, and Aaron Jodka pose for a roommate photo

Baccalaureate

- Senior Nicole Santosuosso reads the first reading during Mass

- Dennis Moran and his parents stop for a quick photo during dinner

Every year the night before Graduation, a Baccalaureate Mass is held at the Cathedral of St. Peter's in Worcester. Attendance at the Mass was superb. The Assumption College Chapel Choir was on hand to help celebrate the Mass. The Baccalaureate Mass is a nice closing tradition for a students' college career.

After the Mass, Baccalaureate dinner was held at the DCU Center. During the dinner, Natalie DiCecca announced the Senior Class Gift. This year's gift was a bronze statue for the new football stadium. Numerous awards were given out, including the Senior Horizon Award and the Crown Shields Awards.

Sister Ellen addressed the class of 2005 at the dinner by telling them about her work overseas and how we are all students and teachers at some point in our lives. Baccalaureate dinner concluded with the viewing of the Senior Class slideshow, which brought much laughter from the audience. Baccalaureate dinner and Mass were a great way for the families of the Senior Class to come together for one final time before graduation.

- Families gather inside of The Cathedral of St. Paul's for Mass

● Many proud families attended Baccalaureate.

● The Senior Class officers Vice President, Katie Lapolice; Secretary, Trish Steele; President, Frank Woods; and Treasurer, Amanda Bradley get together for a photo at dinner

● "Ducky" and Ryan Bonnyman give graduation three big thumbs up.

● Seniors wait for the procession to start

On Saturday, May 14th, 2005 Assumption College held its 88th Commencement Exercise.
Though it was a gray day outside, the rain held off and the smiles from the crowd shined all day long. The procession started at 9:40 with a bagpiper standing outside of the Plourde Recreation Center to greet the Graduates as they marched to the H.L.
Rocheleau baseball field where the Graduation was set to take place.

Senior Allison Burn sang the National Anthem.
Burns' voice rang throughout the tent. She was given a huge round of applause for her talented performance.

Valedictorian, Mary Wood, started the graduation ceremonies by addressing the crowd.
During her speech Mary touched upon the effect

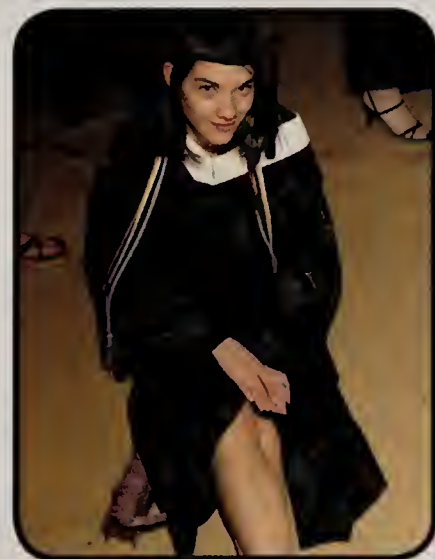

- Siblings
Katie and John Wood
wait in anticipation of Graduation

of September 11th, and how two weeks into their college career the Senior class had to come together to support each other in the wake of a national tragedy. Mary pointed to this as just one of the many reasons why our class has grown together.

Week, waits for the procession to begin.

Mary continued on to say "Collectively, the faculty and staff of Assumption College have a clear vision of not only what the students should learn, but also how they should live their lives," she said. "We hear that 'it takes a village to raise a child'; it also takes an entire college to prepare a graduate."

President Thomas Plough addressed the crowd next by talking about how hard each of the graduates worked to get to where they are today. He also pointed out how they would not be there without the support they had throughout these past few years. President Plough then asked parents, siblings, spouses, grandparents, and teachers of the students to stand up, one group at a time, to be recognized for the assistance they had given the students throughout their college experience.

The commencement speaker was Fr. Richard John Neuhause. Neuhause, one of the foremost authorities on the role of religion in the contemporary world, addressed the crowd on the topics of faith and moral integrity. "How we live depends on for whom we live," he said. "The great tragedy of our lives is to live for ourselves. If we are wise, we revere God first." Neuhaus received one of the two honorary degrees given. The other honorary degree was presented to theatrical director Michael Ritchie, the current artistic director of the Los-Angeles based Center Theatre Group. Ritchie, a native of Worcester, attended Assumption in the 1970s.

Commencement ended with the presentation of diplomas to the Class of 2005 and was followed by a reception in the Plourde Recreation Center.

The Class of 2005 was very sad to see this day come. Throughout the ceremony it was often overhead "I can't believe this day is really here, pinch me, this must be a dream." Nonetheless, commencement did come and it was a beautiful ceremony. Good luck to the Class of 2005. Come back and visit often. Assumption College will miss you greatly.

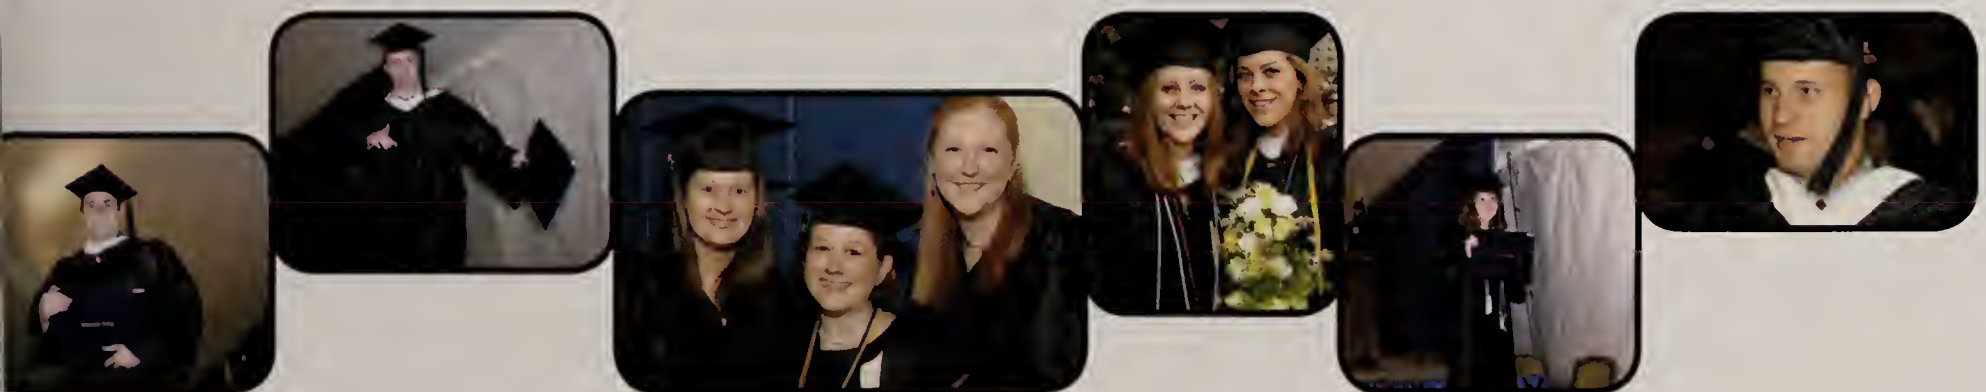

● Friends smile after the Commencement Ceremonies

● Graduates Ryan Brennan, Erin Ahearn, Amanda Bradley, Trish Steele, Katie LaPolice, and Frank Woods show off their brand new diplomas with pride.

Heights 2005

“And these are the moments
These are the times
Let’s make the best out of our lives”

On behalf of the 2005 Heights I like to extend our appreciation towards all those who have made this 47th volume possible.

First and foremost, we would like to thank our advisor Erica Tolles for attending countless meetings and always having her door open for us to go and talk to her. Erica put in countless hours helping us track down photos and editing pages, without her help the book would not have been the success that it was. Thanks go out to our Technical Advisor Carmella Murphy, from attending the media convention with us last year to looking at our computers and taking photos. Thanks also go out to Advisor Joe Golia for all the work done behind the scenes-from taking pictures to editing the proofs. We would also like to thank Lili Zannotti for all of the assistance she provide our staff with throughout this year.

Dan Smith from Herff-Jones deserves a huge thank you for everything he has done. From coming in over the summer to train the staff, to spending hours assisting us with preparing pages for submission Dan has been a great resource for this book. We would also like to thank everyone else at Herff-Jones who assisted in the production of this book.

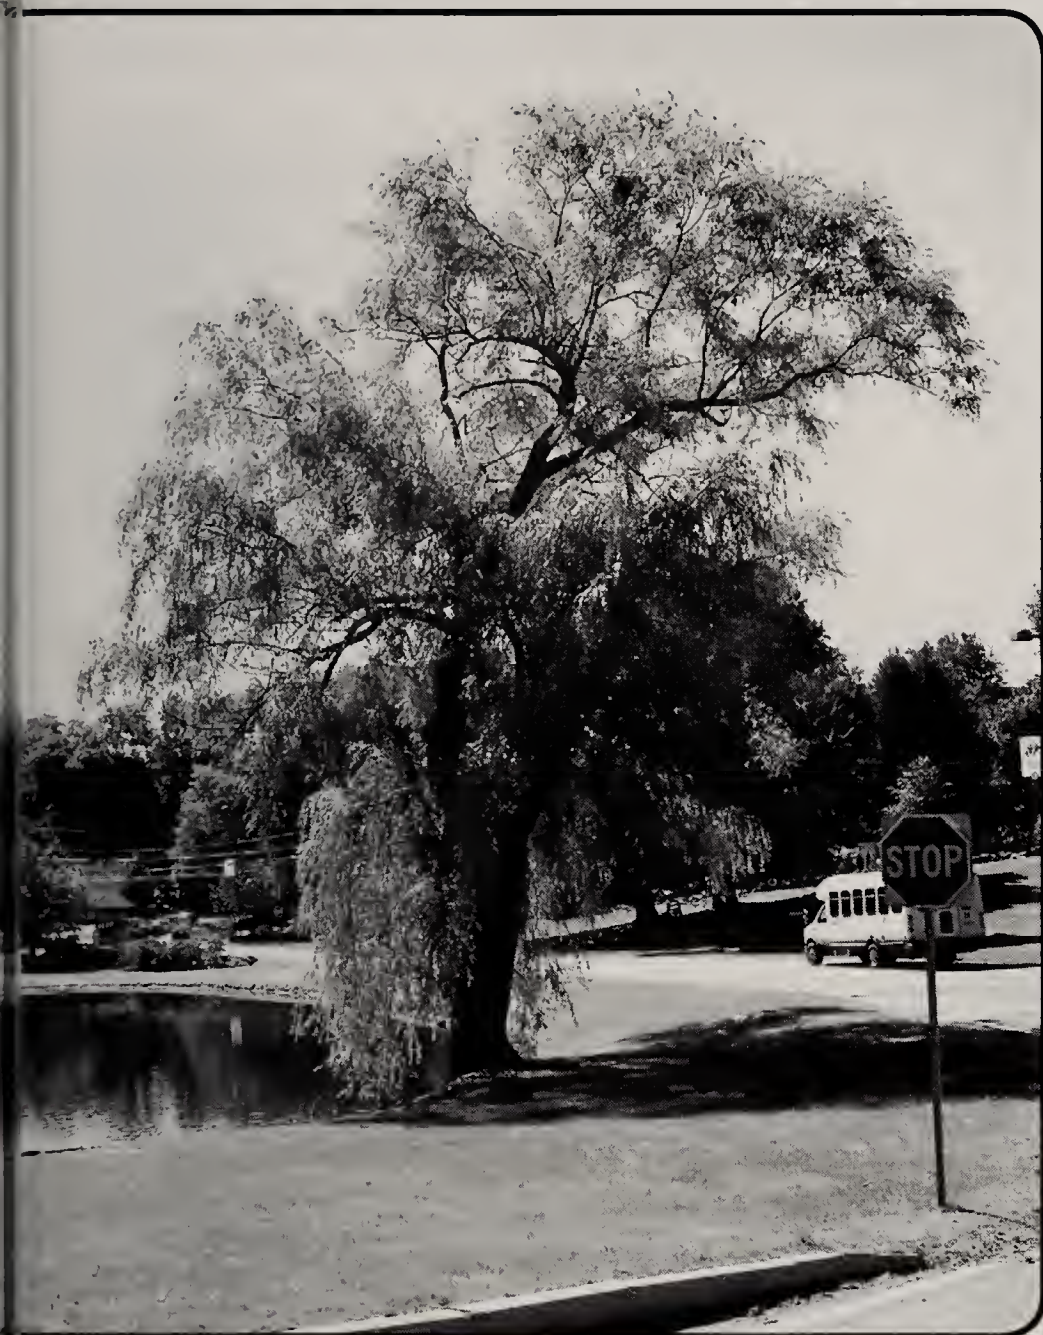

Without the assistance of Fine Point Photography we would not have the Senior Portraits or numerous other pictures. We would like to thank them for all of the wonderful photos they took throughout the year. Thanks also go out to Nancy McBride in Public Affairs, Steve Morris from the Athletic Department, the Campus Ministry Department, and everyone else who submitted photos. Without those photos we would have many blank pages.

Thanks go out to the IT Center/Help Desk for assisting in the numerous computer problems we had throughout this year. We would also like to thank the Copy Center for all of the photos they did a wonderful job copying, and the Post Office for all of the mailings they assisted us with.

We would like to thank the Campus Activity Board, especially Nick Laffin, the Student Government Association, and Le Provocateur for all of the photos and stories of events we were unable to attend. Without all of your help we would not have known what happened at those events.

On a person level I would like to thank all of the staff members. I would like to thank our Business Manager, Jenn Acciavatti. Jenn, you did a wonderful job keeping track of all the orders and making sure we stayed under budget. We couldn’t have done it without you! Thanks also go out to our Underclassmen Editor Andria Hoffman. Thank you so much Andria for stepping up when we needed your help and getting those pages done!

Erin O'Carroll and Liz Olds deserve a huge round of applause for all the hard work they did as Editors of the Senior Section. Erin and Liz, this year's senior section was the best I've seen! Thank you for staying on top of things and putting in all the effort you did. Our Student Life section would not have been as amazing as it is if it wasn't for the effort for section editors Sheila Fleming and Kristin Costello. Sheila and Kristin, thank you for finishing this section. I appreciate all of the hard work you put in. The section is amazing and reflects your commitment to the book.

I would like to thank the Clubs' Editors Kelli Neville and Shannon Steele. Kelli and Shannon, I know just how hard you two worked to get all of those photos. Your hard work paid off, just look how much club coverage you were able to fit in! Thank you for spending hours tracking down all of those photos, and all the while keeping smiles on your faces. A huge thank you to Sports Editors Katie Fleming and Kristen Brown for all of the work they did. I know you spent hours tracking down photos and getting quotes from the captains. I love how your section came out. Katie Burke and Julie Phinny also deserve thanks for all of the work they did as Editors of the Faculty Section. Katie and Julie, I know how hard it is to track down professors just to meet with them, but to track down entire departments is a miracle. I knew you could do it! Thank you for all of your hard work.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank Assistant Editor Meaghan Moran. Meaghan, you have been amazing to work with this past year, I don't know how you were able to stand spending so much time with me in our tiny office. It was great knowing that I could always count on your help throughout the year. I also would like to say, great job on all of the baby ads! It has been a pleasure to work with you.

Thank you to everyone who assisted with the book throughout the year. This year far surpassed any other year I have been on staff here at Assumption College. It was great going out with a bang! The book looks amazing and I couldn't be happier with the final outcome. THANK YOU SO MUCH!

Katelyn Elyssa Henry

Congratulations Katelyn, "Katy-No-Pockets", Kate, "Katy-Did", wonderful daughter, sister, aunt, friend, editor-in-chief...and now college graduate! Your by-line in the Provoc says it all, "Yougottawanna". You've always been self-motivated and focused, so when you've wanted something you've gone after it...be it cheering, coaching, writing, making dean's list, making friends. We couldn't be prouder of you and all your achievements. But your greatest accomplishment to date is that you've grown into a talented, thoughtful, beautiful young woman. So now "Yougottawanna" take on the world! Parents give their children two gifts: The first is roots, the second is wings. SOAR!

Rob Lavin

Robert,

It's hard to believe you're now a college graduate. It seems just last year you were dancing on stage as Chicken Little or last week waiting on the sidelines at WHS with the Tiger Alumni.

We're so proud!

Love,

Dad, Mom, Tom, Brittany, Jessica, Rachel, Rebecca, Jozlyn, Lucie, Amelia

Lindsay McCloud

Lindsay,

The future stands bright before you. May the road you travel be filled with happiness and success. We are proud of you and all that you have achieved.

Congratulations.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Keith Lussier

Keith,

We hope that you'll remember your college years as some of the best of your life. We're very proud of you for working so hard and doing so well and for being the wonderful young man that you are.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Justin

Ashley McGurn

To my loving daughter Ashley, Who would have thought as the little girl I used to call Basher, you would turn out to be such an intelligent, dedicated student, and a hard working and caring employee. I am so proud of you and love you so much.

Love,
Dad

Kristina Terese Maila

We thank God for your lovely voice. Keep on singing! We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. May your life be filled with love, peace, happiness, laughter and music.
God bless.

Love you forever and always,
Daddy, Mama and Julie

Erin McLaughlin

Dear Erin,

Your family is proud of your many accomplishments: your musical talents, your artistic abilities, your great grades, and your kindness to others-to the mission, to the Mexican children. Do not follow the path of others but always strive to make your own path. You offer so much to the world. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom

Laura B. Martin

To the graduate, no more a child, On whom these many years my love has shon: Take pleasure in the pleasure of my pride, However much you've managed on your own. Even as you dance upon your stage, Growing ever more endowed with grace, Remember that my love will never change, A place for you beyond all time and place.

Kelli Neville
 To our dear daughter Kelli,
 There are no words to describe how we feel about you. The love, pride, and joy you brought us cannot be measured. Our wish for you is to be happy. We want to take this time to thank you for all the happiness you have given us. You have become a beautiful, caring, intelligent young lady who will succeed in whatever you do. Love

Always,

Sarah Pinzino

Dear Sarah,
 Though obstacles have been many, your determination continues to see you through. As you enter the next phase of your life,
 may that same determination, along with your compassion and love for others, bring you happiness and success.

Thanks for making us so proud.

Christopher Shula

To our dear son Christopher, Congratulations on your achievements. We are very proud of what you have accomplished. Throughout your journey, many obstacles have been presented to you and you have mastered each one with honesty and perseverance. May your guardian angel continue to watchover you and always take a few minutes to say thank you to God. When opportunities are presented before you, don't forget to DANCE.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Melanie Silva

Congratulations Melanie
Seventeen years ago, we watched you as an enthusiastic young child begin your journey down the path of education. Today, we are proud, to watch you complete your journey as a beautiful, intelligent, adult. Your enthusiasm undaunted, but now full of knowledge: ready to pass on what you have learned in life. Love,
Mom and Dad

Morgan St. Clair

CONGRATULATIONS MORGAN,

I am so proud of your four-year college journey for it has truly given you your entrance to adulthood and aspirations.

It has not always been easy but your experiences only make you stronger. You have known friendship, independence, heartbreak, and resilience. You have seen the world and it has sparked your future. These years will remain with you for a lifetime and as your mother I can see a young girl who has become, and will always be, a mature, caring woman, a goal-setter, a runner, a world-traveler, a great shopper (I had to get that in), a loving sister, and a cherished daughter. As you make your way through this new journey, always know you are loved.

Mom and Neal

Katelyn Taylor

Katie,

We are so proud of our little girl! More than anything, we want you to be happy. Please know that we believe in you!
Follow your dreams!

Trish Steele

Congratulations Trish!

It has been an exciting journey watching you grow into such a beautiful person. You enrich the lives of everyone around you with your energy, enthusiasm, and love of life. We wish you happiness and success as your journey continues.

Keep smiling!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Tracy, Julie, Annie

James Turner

Whew! Today we offer you not only love and congratulations, but hope: Hope that you come to know how special a time, and now moment, this has been in your life; Hope that you recognize it as the foundation, yet only a step, for what is to come. Hope that you appreciate the opportunity you have had, an opportunity that others die for. Hope that you will always remain part of the Assumption family. You chose well four years ago. We too have enjoyed the ride. Finally, Hope that you will be open to new ideas and experiences, find happiness in life, give generously of yourself, and that you will in some small way make a difference in people's lives.

Love, Mom and Dad

Amy E. Vonkale

Amy, this was just an ordinary day in our EXTRA-ordinary little girl's life. Now our little girl has become an Extraordinary young woman.

As always, you have made us so very proud. We love you and always remember, 'One Four' - "Just Be You!" Love...Mom, Dad, Heidi and Family

Daniel Warner

Dan, it seems like only yesterday when we walked to the field at Assumption and played baseball or would go to the campus store for candy and a soda. Remember when the security guard took away your studded bracelet thinking it was dangerous and we had to get it back for you. Whoever thought you would be walking a different path through Assumption but this time towards your future. You have made us proud and you have accomplished so much already. We know that whatever you do or wherever you go from here on in will be just as rewarding. Just keep following your dreams and never settle for anything less.

Love always,
Mum, Dad and Stephanie
